OFFICIALS WATCH THE DIAZ REVOLT

Attention Is Concentrated on Mexican Rebellion, Now Formidable

SITUATION AT VERA CRUZ

Two Commanders on Eve of Battle Agree to Fight Outside of City —Gen. Diaz, ex-President, Denies He Will Return

Washington, Oct. 21.—Official interest here today centered upon the situation in Mexico, where the rebellion has taken on a new and formidable phase, as a result of the revolt of General Felix Diaz. The return to Washington of Secretary Knox from his Japan trip; the presence here of Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico, and interesting and important developments in the military situation at Vera Cruz, held by Diaz within the past two days, were elements that served to concentrate attention upon the Mexican trouble.

As Secretary Knox was accompanied from Chicago to Washington by Assistant Secretary Huntington Wilson he found himself upon his arrival here this morning well informed of all save the very latest developments.

Probably in consequence, the conference which was expected to take place between Secretary Knox and Ambassador Wilson was deferred for a time. However, the ambassador probably will have an opportunity to discuss the situation and receive suggestions that may be thought necessary for his guidance in the confidential talk with Secretary Knox before the letter leaves Washington tomorrow night to join President Taft at Beverly. The one fact that stands out clearly today is that, although the ambassador has conferred at length with Acting Secretary Adee and the officials of the State Department, who are charged principally with the conduct of Mexican relations, nothing he has communicated has influenced the officials to change in any respect the clearly defined policy of no intervention in Mexico. This is true even in the face of semi-official admissions that the revolutionary movement in Mexico has assumed a more serious aspect than ever before and that a coaliton between the forces of the rebel leader Zapata, which has for the past year maintained a formidable rebellion almost within sight of the Mexican capital, and General Felix Diaz, reputed to be supported by the powerful Cientifico party, might jeopardize the very existence of the Madero government. So far, however, it cannot be established that these leaders have agreed to make common cause.

The military situation at Vera Cruz, according to the last reports to the department, was extremely interesting. Though there was promise of an important battle between the Diaz forces and the Federal army, commanded by General Beltran, it was confidently expected the important interests in Vera Cruz would escape jeopardy, and loss of lives of non-combatants be averted by an agreement between the two commanders to do their fighting outside the city limits. General Beltran told the foreign consuls that he would transmit to his government their request to refrain from bombarding the town, or fighting in its streets.

For his part, General Diaz, who is in complete possession of the city proper, offered to the consuls all possible guarantees to life and property so long as he maintained control. With the leaders on both sides in this frame of mind the consuls felt reassured.

According to today's reports, everything in Vera Cruz is quiet and is likely to remain so unless the Federal gunboats bombard the city.

General Beltran's forces were about 10 miles from town. A possible element of trouble is the issue of a decree by the government officer in charge of the gunboats declaring the port of Vera Cruz closed. Indirectly this may drag the United States navy into the affair as the American mail steamer Segurança has appeared in the harbor and is there to discharge a cargo. If the Federal naval commander persists in regarding the port as closed and refuses to permit the ship to unload, the situation would exactly parallel that in Rio harbor, nearly 20 years ago, when the American navy broke a rebel blockade.

Gen. Diaz Denies Rumors

Paris, Oct. 21.—General Pofirio Diaz, ex-President of Mexico, declared today that his intention of not returning to Mexico was unchanged. He is staying at a hotel here and shows great interest in the news concerning his nephew, Felix Diaz, and the taking of Vera Cruz. He said, however, he was without private advices from Mexico, and continued:

"Under the circumstances, I prefer not to express any opinion relative to my nephew's intentions and chances."

Naturally, he said, he was not connected in any way with the present movement. His only desire was to see a peaceable Mexico which would thus be given a chance to develop, grow and thrive. General Diaz is greatly disturbed in regard to the several interviews purporting to be from him which have been issued in Paris, and where he has been quoted as attacking President Madero. He said these statements were untrue.

Sam Schepps' Conversations at Hot Springs, Ark., Read Into Record at Becker's Trial—Case Swiftly Nears Close.

New York, Oct. 21.—What Sam Schepps told his friends in Hot Springs Ark., about the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was read into the record today at the trial of Police Lieut. Chas. Becker, who is charged with instigating the crime.

"I don't want you fellows to think we killed a man who was of any account," Schepps told Postmaster Johnson, of Hot Springs, according to Johnson's testimony before the commission sent to Hot Springs to examine him and other persons.

"That fellow Rosenthal was a dirty cur. He should have been killed. I don't want you fellow to think of me as a common murderer."

Mr. Johnson's testimony was read by John Hart, Becker's lawyer, with intent to support the contention that Schepps was one of the four men who desired Rosenthal's death on his own account, and conspired to kill him. For two hours this afternoon Mr. Hart read extracts from the testimony at Hot Springs. In that which went on record was a talk between Schepps and Michael Berkholz, of Argentina, Ark., in which Schepps is alleged to have said, "You don't know what a dirty dog Rosenthal got to be. He thought everybody was abusing him. Why, he even wanted the gang to kill Louis Kaufman."

Thirteen witnesses, three of whom remained more than a few minutes on the stand, testified today and brought the case swiftly toward its close. Indications at adjournment were that the defense would rest tomorrow without placing Becker on the stand, notwithstanding previous announcement by the accused policeman's lawyer that it had been decided to have him testify.

John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, said tonight he wanted as witnesses the four gunmen charged with shooting Rosenthal to death. McMcIntyre said he had been disappointed, also, in producing the testimony of William Shapiro, driver of the murder car.

Among today's witnesses were five policemen, three of whom testified that the raid on Rosenthal's gambling house by Becker's "strong arm squad" last April was not a "fake", as the State charges, but was made two days after they had procured evidence of gambling on the premises. All five declared they had not heard the conversation then between Becker and Mrs. Rosenthal, which Mrs. Rosenthal testified took place.

Two inmates of the Tombs prison, awaiting trial on charges of murder, denied the testimony of James S. Hallen the convict lawyer, who said he heard Becker tell Policeman White that the public would soon pay Becker a pension for killing "that ..... crook Rosenthal."

Several character witnesses also were heard.

SHOT AT CUBAN CONSUL.

Charles F. Brown Alleges Jos. J. Zara Insulted His Wife.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 21.—For an alleged insult to his wife, Charles F. Brown, a draftsman in the local shipyard today shot at Joseph J. Zara, Cuban vice consul at this port. Brown met Zara and opened fire with a revolver and missed. Brown then overpowered Zara and beat him with the butt of his pistol. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of both men.

BATTLE IMMINENT NEAR ADRIANOPLE

NO DECISIVE FIGHTING YET

Servian Army Advances—Greeks Capture Dissikata and Turks Retire to Servia, Where Fighting is Expected Very Soon.

London, Oct. 21.—War news still is the story of comparatively uninteresting small engagements involved in maneuvering for position, while the Turkish and Balkan forces are assembling and preparing for big events.

When the allied States declared war, it was assumed Turkey had by no means concentrated her troops. Moreover, Turkey still was hoping to detach Greece from the confederation. Her failure to do this undoubtedly necessitated some change in the strategic plants and she still needed time to transport her troops to the required position. Hence, the falling back of the small Turkish garrisons from numerous frontier posts is of no great significance.

The Servian army is advancing steadily, and now has its headquarters at Vranya in the movement against Uskup. The Greeks have captured Dissikata, from which position the Turks retired to the town of Servia, where a big battle is expected shortly.

According to a complete report an important battle is imminent at Adrianople. Meanwhile, the rival fleets are active, the Greeks blockading the island of Lemnos and the Turks bombarding Kavarna and Varna. A report of the sinking of a Bulgarian torpedo boat is discredited at Constantinople, where is is stated the Turkish warships in the Black Sea fired at torpedo boats, but the latter took refuge in port, the warships not venturing to follow for fear of mines.

The Greek consul at Cardiff, acting under instructions from his government, is laying claim to all the Greek tonnage entering that port. Every vessel so commandeered becomes the property of the Greek government and the captain, an officer of the Greek navy. Ship owners have requested the British foreign office to protest against this procedure.

Allies Reply to King George.

Athens, Oct. 21.—King George, of Greece, has received telegraphic replies from his three sovereign allies to a message informing them that the Greek army had crossed the frontier. in a sacred agreement and ask the "Filled with a sentiment of sublime, reciprocal and mutual confidence, our peoples, brothers in the faith, unite in a sacred agreement an dask the Almighty Defender of the rights of the weak and Protector of the oppressed, to grant the fervent prayers that ascend to His throne from the four allied nations to the God of battles to crown with success the joint efforts of our arms for the triumph of the doubly righteous cause of faith and liberty."

King Nicholas, of Montenegro, telegraphed: "Our cordial greetings and most sincere wishes for the victory of the worthy descendants of Themistocles and Militiades. May God bless our efforts for our sacred cause."

King Peter, of Servia, sent the following message: "Trusting in God that the forces of the Balkan States, united in religion and led by the traditional sentiment of their peoples, will triumph in their generous work, I hail with confidence the commencement of our joint action, and wish complete success for the valiant Greek army."

The Aegean squadron, under command of Admiral Count Ouricis, arrived yesterday at Kastrow, capital of the island of Lemnos, aid demanded that the authorities surrender.

The squadron today anchors at Port Mydos, and landed troops which advanced to occupy the town.

Admiral Count Ouritis has proclaimed a blockade of all the ports of Lemnos. A blockade is also effective on the coast of Epirius.

The Greeks, by a flank movement, today occupied the Turkish trenches at Dissikata, with trifling losses. The Turks stubbornly resisted, but eventually retired to the town of Servia, 20 miles to the northeast.

20,000 Turks Surrender.

London, Oct. 21.—The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Telegraph reports that the Bulgarians have captured Kirk-Kilissep, where 20,000 Turks surrendered and communication with Constantinople was cut. It is added, however, that there is no official confirmation of this.

The fighting at Plava, which was captured Sunday by the Montenegrins, was very severe. According to a Cettinje dispatch to the Standard, the Albanian population fought desperately and retired only when the whole place was in flames. Nine hundred Albanians were killed, including many women and children, who were found dead with arms in their hands.

STEAMER BURNING FIERCELY

Passengers and Crew on the Berkshire Taken Off by Seminole After Explosion In Hold—Flames Gaining Headway

Washington, Oct. 21.—The fire on the steamer Berkshire, ablaze in Lookout Cove, North Carolina, since Sunday morning, apparently was under control late tonight, according to a dispatch to the Revenue Cutter Service. The commander of the Seminole reported he was running short of coal, but would be able to keep all streams going for some time longer. Arrangements are being made to get coal to the cutter early tomorrow.

The Berkshire's passengers who were taken aboard the Seminole today, were landed at the Cape Lookout Life Station tonight and will remain there until the Seminole can leave the burning steamer to take them to Beaufort. From Beaufort they will go North by rail.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 21.—Fearing for their safety the 21 passengers, life savers and crew of the steamer Berkshire, of the Merchants' & Miners' Transportation Company, which has been at anchor in Lookout Cove, near Cape Lookout, with fire in her hold, since Sunday morning, were taken off the ship today by the crew of the revenue cutter Seminole.

The transfer of the passengers, life savers and crew took place after an explosion in the hold of the ship, and the apparent headway the flames were gaining.

The life savers from Cape Lookout boarded the vessel Sunday morning soon after she anchored in the cove and up to late today had been helping the crew to fight the flames. No member of the crew of the Berkshire has had any sleep since Saturday night and they were almost exhausted when taken off the ship today.

It is reported here that several mem-

George W. Perkins, testifying at the campaign contributions hearing yesterday, emphatically denied that the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign was underwritten. Thos. F. Ryan testified he contributed $450,000 to the Democratic campaign of 1904.

The State Department is watching events in Mexico closely, realizing that the revolt of Diaz has added a serious phase to the rebellion.

Governor Wilson said last night his speaking plans were "up in the air" as he has expressed a desire not to campaign any more till Col. Roosevelt is able to get back in the fight.

What Sam Schepps told his friends in Hot Springs, Ark., about the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was read into the record at the trial of Police Lieut. Becker yesterday.

No important engagements were fought yesterday by the Turkish and Balkan forces, each being engaged in maneuvers preparatory to a decisive battle. An important battle is imminent at Adrianople.

The passengers and crew of the steamer Berkshire, anchored in Lookout Cove, N. C., with a fierce fire raging in her hold, were taken off yesterday by the revenue cutter Seminole. Late last night the fire was still uncontrolled and the cutter was running short of coal.

Col. Roosevelt was somewhat weary from the first lap of his journey from Chicago to Oyster Bay last night, but is standing the trip very well and is expected to reach home without any setback in his condition.

HOMEWARD BOUND, T. R. FARES WELL

SILENT CROWDS WATCH TRAIN

His Trip From Chicago Furnishes Curious Contrast to Every Other One Col. Roosevelt Has Made During Campaign.

On Board Roosevelt Car, Oct. 21.—Although ex-President Roosevelt was weary from his all-day ride from Chicago to Pittsburg, he showed no other ill effects on his arrival there tonight, and the physicians who are accompanying him were confident he would reach Oyster Bay in almost as good condition as when he left Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Roosevelt and the physicians, while believing the colonel had sufficient strength for the trip, nevertheless were concerned as to the outcome when the time came for his departure and during the first few hours they watched the patient closely for any signs of a setback. As the day wore on and it became plain he was resting comfortably on the big brass bed in his stateroom, the tension was relaxed and every one on the colonel's car was breathing more easily.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the day in reading magazines, talking and sleeping. As soon as he was brought to his car in Chicago he went to bed and remained there throughout the day. He said in the morning he did not feel like sleeping, but the swaying of the car tired him and he slept for several hours. Hardships of the journey were increased by several severe jolts, caused by the imperfect action of a brake on the colonel's car. The colonel was suffering from nervous exhaustion when he left Chicago.

Progress of the Roosevelt train was watched by silent crowds. At many of the stations people were out to see the train pass through. They brought flowers and fruits to the wounded man, and sent him messages of greeting. There was no cheering and the people talked in subdued tones.

It all formed a curious contrast to every other trip which Colonel Roosevelt has made during the campaign.

At Lima, Ohio, there was the only suggestion of a cheer during the day. A large crowd had gathered at the station and some one started a cheer. Colonel Cecil Lyon, of Texas, the ex-President's traveling companion, who was standing on the platform, raised his hand. The people understood, and the cheer died away.

Dr. Alex. Lambert, of New York, who with Dr. Scurry Terrell, of Dallas, Texas, is caring for Colonel Roosevelt, issued bulletins during the day, but they merely reported that the colonel was resting easily and that his condition was unchanged.

Aided by the X-ray examination made yesterday, Dr. Lambert was able to determine the position of the bullet by an external examination today. He placed a finger on the precise spot and Colonel Roosevelt showed him that he was right, for he said:

"That's mighty sore there."

The bullet is imbedded in the major pectoral muscle, said Dr. Lambert, and is close to the fourth rib on the right. It will be a simple matter to remove the bullet later, should Colonel Roosevelt wish it.

There was little doubt in Dr. Lambert's mind that Colonel Roosevelt would be well enough to address the campaign rally planned for Madison Square Garden on October 30th. The colonel, the doctor said, would be permitted to speak for half an hour.

The only person who saw Colonel Roosevelt after he boarded the train, aside from the physicians and members of his family, was Walter Brown, Ohio Progressive leader, who spent an hour on the train during the trip across Ohio, and talked with the colonel for a few minutes.

Mr. Roosevelt is traveling to Oyster Bay on the private car Ideal, the car on which President Taft hade his two months tour last year. He is guarded by two private detectives. Colonel Roosevelt is due in New York at 8:08 o'clock tomorrow morning. His car will be taken directly to Oyster Bay, and before 1 o'clock the colonel will be in bed at Sagamore Hill.

Until he has rallied from the trip, Colonel Roosevelt will be required to rest absolutely. He is eager to plunge into the work of the campaign and one of the chief concerns of those about him is to prevent him from undertaking too much.

Standing Journey Well.

Crestline, O., Oct. 21.—Col. Roosevelt's physician issued the following bulletin at 3 o'clock on board the train, taking the former President to Oyster Bay:

"Col. Roosevelt has managed to obtain considerable sleep and is standing the journey well."

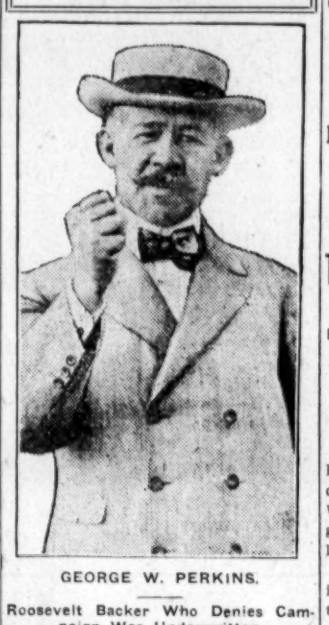
Tells of Contributions.



GEORGE W. PERKINS.

Roosevelt Backer Who Denies Campaign Was Underwritten.

G. W. PERKINS STAR WITNESS

Denies Before Clapp Committee That Roosevelt Campaign Was Underwritten—Ryan Says He Contributed $450,000.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Emphatic denials that a huge fund had been underwritten to finance the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign, or that any money had been contributed to the fund by the International Harvester Company or the United States Steel Corporation, were entered today by George W. Perkins, on the stand, before the Senate Campaign Contributions Committee.

The testimony of Mr. Perkins bristled with such expressions as "unmitigated lies," "absolutely false," "totally unfair," and "mere hot air." He denounced the charges made by Senator Boies Penrose and by Charles D. Hilles, Republican National chairman, demanding that Senator Penrose be made to prove his assertion that a $3,000,000 fund was underwritten for the Roosevelt campaign, of "like a gentleman, take back", and declaring that Mr. Hilles should prove his charge or "be dismissed from office." Throughout most of his examination Mr. Perkins was in a wrangle with some member of the committee. Time after time he waved a clenched fist in the air and declared that the committee "could not get away with it." Once the committee voted to expunge a remark from the record. As he grew indignant under cross examination, the witness would rise in his place, glaring at the committee and gesticulating violently.

Mr. Perkins accounted to the committee for $123,000, which, he said, he spent in the pre-convention campaign of Col. Roosevelt.

"That was absolutely all of my contribution," he declared emphatically.

But Mr. Perkins could not recollect clearly the amounts he subscribed or collected for the Republican campaign fund of 1904.

He said that the various large amounts credited to "G. W. P." on the list of contributors to that fund furnished the committee by Elmer Dover were undoubtedly secured by Treasurer C. N. Bliss from men whose names he had suggested or whom he had asked personally to contribute. The witness said, he "almost dropped dead" when Senator Albert M. Beveridge, of Indiana, returned to him $10,000 which he sent him in 1904. This was the only instance he knew of, he said, of a "man running for office returning money after he had got his hands on it."

Mr. Perkins grew indignant when he was questioned as to any relation his activities in connection with the 1904 campaign might have had to the withholding of the suit against the Harvester Company, planned by the Department of Justice in 1907. He declared that for the government to have begun the action at that time would have been "totally unfair" because the Bureau of Corporations was then investigating the company; that he went to see President Roosevelt and that the latter, after investigating, ordered the suit delayed. His statement to Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations, "that he would fight" or "the Morgan interests would fight," he said, meant only that the case would be fought in the courts, and had no political significance. In conclusion, Mr. Perkins declared that he had never asked a favor of any government official and that he was not in politics to secure business favors.

"When this campaign is over," he added, "if on the 5th of November Theodore Roosevelt is elected, on November 6th our accounts will be all square."

Thomas Fortune Ryan loomed up as the biggest individual campaign contributor that has come to the committee's attention when he told of contributing $450,000 to the fund of Alton B. Parker in 1904. Of this sum, Mr. Ryan said, he gave $350,000 after he was convinced that Mr. Parker was defeated, in order to save the Democratic organization.

Half a dozen Philadelphia newspaper men were sworn today to testify

STILL IT CLIMBS BUT IS BY DEGREES

Largest Report Will Be Made by the Teams Tonight

TEN DOLLAR PROPOSITION

Every Member of Committee of One Hundred Must Produce Small Amount by This Evening—Another Thousand

Will every member of the carefully-selected Committee of One Hundred to solicit for the $10,000 Woodrow Wilson Fund from Wilmington make good on the proposition to report at least $10 by this evening at 6 o'clock?

It is not a difficult assignment and if each member of the ten teams of ten men each will make good on the proposition, it will mean another thousand to the fund which is already growing and which will go on over the $10,000 mark easily just as soon as the conditional subscriptions begin to be realized upon.

Upon every member of these ten teams a civic responsibility rests and they can and must make good by reporting at least $10 each tonight. The rest will be easy when this work is accomplished. One of the teams yesterday, through the efforts of only one or two members of the team, came within $35 of raising the entire amount for that team and two members of another team raised $30. If the eight other members of this team will do equally as well and all other teams will come to the scratch, it will easily be a thousand more by tonight.

Yesterday the canvassers were strongly encouraged with a donation of $50 from Mr. B. F. Hall through Mr. Laurence Sprunt's team, while there was another striking incident in the experience of another team which dropped into the laundry of Der Chung, at 105 North Third street, opposite the City Hall. The proprietor of Der Chung's place thought Woodrow Wilson's election was worth $5 to him and his example might be followed by others. Another incident illustrated the willingness of people to contribute if only approached in the proper spirit. A gentleman on the wharf who had already contributed was being besought for a donation. His brother, an enterprising Wilmingtonian, stepped forward and made a voluntary contribution of $5. And so it went. Everybody is expecting and willing to give. They are only waiting the magic appearance of those who have been clothed with the responsibility of carrying out this work and it is believed that the amount is now almost in sight.

The distinction that a $10,000 contribution would give Wilmington is worth striving for and many of the team members are going into win on this basis alone, if not prompted by the higher consideration of electing a people's President. Mr. Percy S. Vaughan, of the Solomon stores, is one team member who has done exceedingly well. He is a member of Mr. J. W. Simpson's team and while his time belongs to another, odd moments have been profitably employed in seeing a few of his friends and he has turned into the general treasury substantial sums from day to day.

WILMINGTON BOY STAR.

Bluethenthal Only Princetonian Showing Up in Old-Time Form.

Wilmington people who are watching the big grid-iron battles on Northern fields were peculiarly pleased to note from the big New York Sunday papers that Herbert Bluethenthal, of Wilmington, is still the star of the Princeton Tigers, and is, in fact, the only one of last year's champions who is showing up in anything like the old-time form. Of his playing in Saturday's game with Syracuse in which Princeton was the victor 62 to 0, the New York Times of Sunday says:

"The Princeton ends were boxed continuously during the first period and showed their only flashes of form by a few open-field tackles in covering punts. Bluethenthal at centre was the only man on the Orange and Black line who showed a semblance of the play than won the championship for Princeton last year. Logan at right guard failed to charge hard and was out-played at many points by Camp. W. Swart and Shenk fared slightly better against Hilflinger, but Bluethenthal's power saved them from tottering on many occasions. The sturdy player at the pivot position covered the three keystone positions like a fiend, and "had everything". Right tackle was weak because of the absence of Ed Trenckman, the regular choice, Penfield and Lee being completely lost on many plays. Ballin, who substituted for Penfield, overpowered his opponents several times by his quick work."

FAILS TO NAME MAN.

Murphy Doesn't Tell Who Will Succeed Frank Chance.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Although President Murphy, of the Chicago National League Baseball Club, has announced that he has decided on a new manager to supplant Frank Chance next year, he failed to name the man today. In connection with the statements of President Murphy, Manager Chance declared that "Murphy does not dare to release me."

Manager Chance said he did not believe President Murphy had chosen a new manager, but he might select one later.

Chance said it was a "dog's life to manage a team under Murphy," and the players "hated to play for him." Chance said Murphy had accused him of inability, but that the only players obtained by the Cubs had been procured without the help of the club president, "except three, and Murphy got them for nothing."

SHERIFF STOPS BOUT.

Gunboat Smith Punishes Jim Stewart in Seven Rounds.

New York, Oct. 21.—Sheriff Harburger stopped the bout between Gunboat Smith, of California, and Jim Stewart, of Brooklyn, at the end of the seventh round at Madison Square Garden tonight. Stewart had been punished severely from the start, but his ring generalship enabled him to avoid a knockout. It is the first time the sheriff has entered the ring to stop a bout of any importance. Recently Sheriff Harburger was instructed by Governor Dix to keep a watchful eye on boxing here.

Promoter Calls Off Proposed Bout On Account of Abduction

Sydney, Australia, Oct. 21.—Jack Johnson will not fight in Australia. Hugh McIntosh, who had offered Johnson $50,000 for fights with Sam Langford and Sam McVey or Joe Jeanette, cabled today to W. W. Kelly, his representative in Chicago, to cancel all negotiations. McIntosh explained that Johnson's part in the alleged abduction at Chicago, had so angered the sporting men and public of Australia that the matches were no longer desirable.

The doctors decided not to question her regarding the mistake, fearing any mention of the affair would bring a second collapse. The authorities have not yet learned how the acid came to be in the medicine cabinet next to the salts.

that William Flinn, the Pittsburg leader, was in Philadelphia at the time Senator Penrose charges Flinn offered him $1,000,000 for his support for the Senatorship to succeed Senator Quay. Mr. Flinn, on the stand, declared that he was not in Philadelphia at the time.

The committee will meet tomorrow, but it is probable no witnesses will be heard. Several will be summoned for Wednesday, according to present plans and the committee after Wednesday's session, probably will adjourn until after election.

Thomas Fortune Ryan was the first witness today. Mr. Ryan first told the committee he had shouldered $350,000 of the debts of the Democratic National Committee in 1904.

"Early in the campaign," he said, "I gave $50,000 to the fund, although I was opposed to the nomination of Judge Parker. I gave probably $50,000 in smaller contributions. When the end of the campaign was drawing near and it was quite apparent that Mr. Parker could not be elected, some of my friends came to me and told me the campaign would collapse unless the committee received financial assistance. I finally agreed, in order to pay the party workers and preserve the integrity of the party, to furnish $350,000.

"This made a total of $450,000 I gave throughout the campaign. This was a personal contribution and did not represent anybody except myself. I did not give the money to try to elect Parker. I merely wanted to preserve the Democratic organization."

In reply to questions concerning the pre-convention campaign of 1912, Mr. Ryan said he had contributed between $75,000 and $80,000 to Governor Harmon's campaign and more than $30,000 to Representative Underwood's.

"I was not asked to aid Mr. Clark or Mr. Wilson, but would have given them assistance if it had been requested," he said.

ALLOWED TO SPEAK.

Clash Between Socialists and Authorities in N. Y. Ends.

Little Falls, N. Y., Oct. 21.—A week's resistance of the invasion of Socialist orators from Schenectady, who were arrested when they tried to address factory workers here, was called off by the local authorities today when they allowed a number of prominent Socialists to address the strikers. It is generally believed here no further trouble will be experienced.

District Attorney Frank Schmidt, however, declared that the trial of Mayor Lunn, of Schenectady on the charge of violating a city ordinance should proceed tomorrow as scheduled.

For four hours this afternoon the Socialists held an open air meeting which was attended by several hundred strikers from the local knitting mills. Police were on hand, but there was no trouble. In addresses, both Mayor Lunn and Charles Edward Russell, Socialist candidate for Governor, denounced efforts of the authorities to curtail rights of free speech. They urged the strikers to refrain from violence.

NO DECISIONS.

Supreme Court Announces No Opinion on Opening Day.

Washington, Oct. 21.—For the first time in many years, the Supreme Court today let the initial decision day, after the Summer recess, pass without announcing a single opinion. Decisions were expected in the "hard coal case," the Union Pacific merger case, or the State rate cases.

Dr. Geo. C. Worth's Lecture

The third of a series of lectures arranged for the Fall at the Boys' Brigade was given last night. Dr. Geo. C. Worth was the lecturer and he had as his subject, "Shanghai, China." Having lived in China for a number of years as medical missionary Dr. Worth is well qualified to speak on the subject and he was heard with the greatest interest by the large number present. The Brigade Bible classes, Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, teacher, began the season last night after having suspended during the Summer months.

Tenth Anniversary

The tenth anniversary of New Hanover Council, No. 6, Daughters of Liberty, was fittingly celebrated at the Junior Order Hall on South Front street, last night. Mr. W. B. Regis-ter presided at the meeting and after the regular routine business had been transacted a number of interesting short talks were made. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mr. A. P. Russ, chairman; Miss Letitia Melvin, Mrs. Arline Ezzell and Mrs. L. F. Congleton.

Begins His New Pastorate.

Rev. B. F. Clausen, formerly pastor of the 128th Street Lutheran church, New York City, began his pastorate of St. Paul's Lutheran church, this city, Sunday morning, when he preached to a large and attentive congregation. He had another large congregation in the evening. Mr. Clausen is an able preacher and a man of most pleasing personality. He was warmly greeted and heartily welcomed to the city by members of his congregation.

DO YOU ENJOY EATING.

Or Does Everything You Eat Distress You.

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions also usually go together.

John Lind, of Oneonta, N. Y., says: "I had a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was very poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking two bottles of Vinol I find that it has already made a remarkable improvement in my health, my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

The grip was not opened. The chief of police says it will not be opened for the present.

Colonel Will Speak Oct. 30th.

New York, Oct. 21.—Unless a serious setback occurs in the expected improvement of Theodore Roosevelt's condition, the colonel will make his scheduled speech at the Progressive mass meeting at Madison Square Garden, on October 30th, according to announcement made today by Progressive State Chairman Hotchkiss.

This is expected to be the ex-President's only public appearance in this State during this campaign, Mr. Hotchkiss said.

WHO SHALL RULE?

Interests Against People is Issue, Says Senator O'Gorman.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21.—That the paramount issue of the Presidential campaign is not the tariff question, the regulation of trusts or the high cost of living, but whether the people or the interests shall rule, was the keynote of the address of United States Senator James A. O'Gorman here tonight.

Some believe the paramount issue is the tariff," declared Senator O'Gorman. "Others believe the issue is the high cost of living; some think the great problem is the regulation or suppression of the 'rusts, but they are all interlocked and are related with one another, and in a large sense they constitute but a single issue. The tariff affects the high cost of living, the trusts depend upon the ability of the interests to control the government and none of these problems can be solved unless the people rule.

"People have supposed they had a government of their own selection, but recent disclosures have established that at least for the last 16 years the trusts kept the Republican party in power and largely directed the policies of the government."

The Senator said all parties are agreed that tariff revision downward is necessary. "We were all agreed on that proposition four years ago," he continued. "By a vote at that time you declared you wanted a revision downward. You did not get it. The Republican party broke its promise to give it. Will you trust that party again? The only hope for redress is the election not only of a Democratic House of Representatives, but of a Democratic Senate and a Democratic President. Senator O'Gorman said he believed the people would not be influenced by the pledges made by the "candidate of the third party when they remember that during the seven and a half years during which he was in supreme power in this country he never raised his hand or lifted his voice to promote the policies in which he now professes to believe."

TO STOP GAMBLING.

Gov. Marshall Orders Indiana Militia to Porter Race Track.

Indianapolis, Oct. 21.—After private detectives had reported tonight that gambling had been going on today at the newly organized running race meet at Porter, Ind., two companies of militia were ordered to the track tomorrow to prevent violation of the State gaming law. The troops were ordered out by Governor Marshall's secretary as the Governor is in California campaigning. Today this message was received from Governor Marshall:

"If the Attorney General says the law is being violated and the sheriff will not do his duty, have the militia sent to enforce the law.

"The State has failed in its efforts to get a restraining order which would have prevented gambling at the track. The track is near Chicago, is not being operated under an Indiana corporation certificate and Governor Marshall has charged it with being run for the benefit of horse race followers of Chicago.

LOOTED TREASURY

Darke County, Ohio, Officers Paid Out Illegally $291,148.54

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 21.—According to the report of the State Examiner made public today, officials of Darke county are said to have paid out illegally, $291,148.54 within the last five years. The report states that the public treasury was "boldly looted."

The alleged corrupt county officials used the basement of the Court House for drinking and carousing, according to the report, which stated that the "swag" was usually divided at these gatherings.

One of the accused is now in the penitentiary, another sentenced and several indicted.

Easy to End CATARRH

Just Breathe Booth's HYOMEI—Kill the Germs and Soothe the Inflamed Membrane—Start Today.

Don't be prejudiced. There is not a particle of morphine, cocaine, or any injurious or habit forming drug in HYOMEI.

It is made of Eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics. It will greatly relieve the misery of catarrh or any affliction of the nose and throat in five minutes.

No stomach dosing—just breathe HYOMEI, it gets at the catarrh germs and quickly destroys them.

Ask for HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) outfit. It only costs $1.00, and consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, which can be carried in vest pocket, a bottle of HYOMEI, a medicine dropper, and simple directions for use. Extra bottles 50c.

Leading druggists everywhere sell HYOMEI, which is guaranteed to end catarrh, coughs, colds and croup, or money returned.

If you could go to the Eucalyptus forests of inland Australia you would quickly get rid of catarrh. Booth's HYOMEI brings the identical air of these forests direct to your home. It is a most wonderful catarrh remedy. Ask Robt. R. Bellamy about it.

THREATENED LAWYER.

Johnson Ordered Attorney Thrown From Saloon—Case Opens Today.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—When Attorney Charles E. Erbstein, representing the mother of Lucille Cameron, visited Jack Johnson's saloon today in company with United States deputy marshals, to serve subpoenas on witnesses who are to appear before the Federal grand jury, the negro pugilist threatened the lawyer with personal injury.

"Throw that lawyer out of the place, or I will kill him," shouted Johnson, to one of his bodyguards.

Federal officers protected the attorney and served the pugilist's aged mother and nine employes of the saloon with subpoenas before leaving the place.

Several important witnesses against Johnson could not be found today, but Federal officers continued their search.

The Federal grand jury investigation into Johnson's alleged violations of the Mann white slave act, is scheduled to begin tomorrow, when Lucille Cameron, her mother and 25 other witnesses are expected to testify.

The police have reported to Mayor Harrison that Johnson had violated the 1 o'clock closing ordinance a dozen times in the last month, and have recommended the revocation of his license. Mayor Harrison has taken the report of the police under consideration.

FELL THREE MILES

Two German Balloonists Killed When Lightning Exploded Gas Bag

Berlin, Oct. 21.—The fatal accident yesterday of Lieutenant Hans Gerricke, winner of last year's international balloon race in the United States, created a sensation here today. He was thrown from his balloon at a height of three miles by the explosion of the gas bag which is believed to have been struck by lightning. His aide, Lieut. Steler, also was killed.

Gerricke and Steler were making a trial flight to test the new balloon, which they expected to use in the 1912 contest.

Just above the town of Grossenhain they met a thunderstorm which they attempted to avoid by rising. When a mile in the air their craft was caught in an eddy and became unamanageable. After a terrific plunge straight upward the bag burst. Both men dropped three miles to the ground. They were dead when picked up. The shattered instruments which the balloonists carried on their trip were examined today. The recording apparatus showed they were riding at a height of 6,000 feet when they were suddenly hit by a vertical gust of wind which pushed them straight up with the violence of a hurricane to a height of over 15,000 feet. At this altitude the bag burst, either from the sudden change in pressure, or what is more likely, from being struck by a lightning bolt.

PROSECUTION SCORES

Witness Testifies Union Man Fired First In Grabow Riot

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 21.—The prosecution in the trial for murder of President A. L. Emerson and his eight fellow members of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers in connection with the Grabow labor riot, scored heavily today, the opening of the third week of the trial.

Paul Galloway, the 19-year-old son of Martin Galloway, president of the Galloway Lumber Company, testified that Uriah Martin, one of the union men killed in the battle, fired the first shot and denied the story of Shirley B. Buxton, State's witness, who testified Saturday, that the mill employes were intoxicated the day of the riot.

Deputy Sheriff W. T. Grantham, another important witness, today said that while he was making his way toward the Galloway mill the day the battle occurred, "Leather Breeches" Smith, later killed while resisting arrest, and a gang of 20 men intercepted him, and after having threatened to shoot him, disarmed him and sent him under guard to his brother's home six miles away. Grantham declared that he started for the mill from a point about a mile away, where he said a crowd of 200 men passed, one of whom shouted out, "We are going to serenade Grabow as it never was serenaded before."

The State today gave no indication as to when it would complete the examination of witnesses.

CUBAN ELECTION NOV. 1ST.

Great Excitement Prevails Throughout the Island Over Contest.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The State Department was advised today that great excitement prevails throughout Cuba over the Presidential election, which will take piace November 1st. It is understood Gen. Monteagudo, chief of police at Havana, and the ministers of justice, public instruction and interior, have resigned, although only the resignation of the minister of the interior has been accepted. The leading candidates for the Presidency are Dr. Alfredo Zayas, the present Vice President, Liberal, and Major Gen. Mario Menocal, Conservative. President Gomez is not a candidate for re-election.

The car that conquers every territory it enters is the car to tie to

K-r-i-t cars have already conquered in many sections. They have never yet failed in profit to the dealer, and satisfaction to the buyer.

Increased production now enables us to bring them to you.

Here, therefore, is the opportunity for dealer and buyer alike—a car of medium price that offers such value and service that it has made a clean sweep.

One of the explanations of K-r-i-t value is—that all the essential parts are made within the K-r-i-t organization; the money is put into the car itself and not in useless equipment.

Dealers who know the K-r-i-t, know that the best part of the K-r-i-t profit lies in its character—which makes it a successful car next year as well as this year because the K-r-i-t reputation rolls up the sales. Moreover they know that K-r-i-t service means that the K-r-i-t Motor Car Company stands back of every car—that a written guarantee for a year goes with each car.

The dealer knows also that when he is offering the K-r-i-t he is offering his client a full $900 worth in power, speed, ease in riding, room, comfort, and reliability—more in fact, for that sum than he could ever offer before.

Therefore, the Dealer who ties up with the K-r-i-t will be scoring, like others before him, the biggest business stroke of his career. He will be tying to a car that will sweep through his territory just as it has triumphed elsewhere.

If you understand the technical side of an automobile, bear in mind that the K-r-i-t motor, clutch and transmission are a unit.

That means conservation of power, getting as near as possible 100-per cent efficiency. And speaking of power, don't forget that while the K-r-i-t is medium in price, it is full powered, staunch and husky, equal to any work.

K-r-i-t models are finished in black and nickel and with 56 or 60-inch tread as desired. Their equipment is complete.

An electric lighting system including five lamps, and 100-hour storage battery is added to each car for $10 extra.

Hebrew Merchant Dies in Richmond. Laying of Cornerstone—Negro State Fair—Charters Issued and Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 21.—News came today from a sanatorium at Richmond of the death of Mr. J. Rosengarten, a prominent Hebrew merchant of Raleigh, who has been in failing health for some time. Mr. Rosengarten was 50 years old and leaves a wife and children. He had been in failing health for some time. A year or more ago he and Mr. Kaplin, one of the proprietors of The Fashion, engaged in a street fight in which Mr. Rosengarten claimed to have been considerably injured. He later instituted a damage suit against Kaplin for $50,000. The remains will be brought to Raleigh for interment.

A charter was issued today for the Greensboro Packing & Storage Co., of Greensboro, capital $20,000 authorized and $500 subscribed by R. E. Hackley, G. W. Millersham, Samuel Johnson, Geo. L. Stanbury and J. L. Faulkner for a general furniture and house furnishings, packing and storage business and repairing and upholstering business.

The North Carolina Land Co., Inc., files an amendment to its charter changing the principal office from Southern Pines to Pinehurst. Simeon B. Chapin is the president of the corporation.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be the laying of the cornerstone for the Commercial National Bank, ten-story sky scraper banking and office building, corner of Martin and Wilmington streets. Grand Master W. B. McKoy, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, will be here and provide the full Grand Lodge ceremony for the corner-stone laying. There will be addresses by a number of prominent citizens representing various commercial interests of the city, including Mr. Albert Cox, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. J. M. Templeton, representing the Farmers' Union.

Sheriff E. S. Liven, of Avery county, was here today to deliver to the penitentiary the first convict for the penitentiary since the new county was created by the last Legislature. His name is George Buckner and he is to serve ten years for manslaughter. The sheriff also brought a negro for the criminal insane department.

The Negro State Fair will be in progress here this week beginning Tuesday and the management declares that the outlook is quite promising for much success in the matter of creditable exhibits and in attendance. Large numbers of negro farmers, it is said, are sending exhibits and the exhibits in mechanics, the products of negro workmen, and needle work and other articles by negro women are to be shown in large quantities with desirable premiums to be awarded.

J. B. Ross, the former football player, now contractor on the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern Railway, has settled with the police court the matter of the disturbance he created here Thursday in resisting officers when he gave five policemen more than they could handle in taking and keeping him in custody and getting him to the station house. He submitted to the charge of resisting officers and being intoxicated and paid fines and costs amounting to $75.

AT TRINITY COLLEGE

New Dormitories Completed—Basketball, Tennis and Track

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Oct. 21.—Jarvis Hall, the new domitory, which has been built at Trinity, is now about completed and students will move into it during the present week. This dormintory follows the same architectural plan as the Aycock Hall. Some changes, however, have been made in the interior arrangements. With the completion of this building, the general scheme of buildings designed for the college has been carried out. During the past four weeks a great deal of work has been done in arranging driveways and walks around the building.

The new assembly hall in the East Duke building was formally opened Tuesday evening. The hall has been provided with seats, and all the furnishings are most complete. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Bishop Kilgo spoke to the young men on the "Call of the Ministry."

Considerable interest is manifested in tennis here this year, and to provide accommodations for all interested in this form of sport, several new courts are being made on the western part of the campus, between the library and the athletic field.

Interest in basketball is very great this year. The class captains, with the exception of the Senior, have already been elected, and they are putting their men through rigorous training, preparatory to the class games which commence November 1st. Each team will play six games, the team winning the greatest number winning the championship. R. B. Murray has been elected captain of the Juniors; Beale H. Siler, of the Sophomores, and C. F. Matton of the Freshmen.

Probably the most interesting Fall sport of this college is the annual class relay race, which takes place each October. The preliminary of this race came off Saturday and the four class teams were selected. In the preliminary, the participants of each class ran a mile together, the first ten coming in being chosen to represent their class in the final contest, which comes off Oct. 26th. In yesterday's race the Freshmen showed up best, Barrett, of that class making the mile in five minutes and 20 seconds. Brown, of the Sophomores, took second place. The Seniors came out last, Lane, of that class, making the mile in seven minutes and 30 seconds. Only eleven men from the Senior class participated; so no great competition was shown by them.

The Tombs, a local organization, offers a handsome loving cup to the class victorious in this race. Last year the present Sophomores won; the year before the present Juniors were victors, and this year, it looks as if the Freshmen will again come out first.

SOUTHPORT ITEMS.

Masonic Improvements—Hearing in Chambers—Others News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Oct. 21.—Pythagoras Lodge No. 249, A. F. & A. M., of Southport, has just completed some important improvements upon its building and lodge. The lodge has a very valuable piece of land in Franklin Square and its building has been painted, steel ceilings have been placed instead of plaster, lodge quarters enlarged, new furniture added and new carpets laid. These improvements were in charge of a committee of three members, Dr. Bryan and Messrs. Berg and Tobiason. Fifteen hundred dollars was spent. The membership is on the increase.

The Methodist church for ten days previous to last Wednesday has been having a series of religious services, afternoon and night, conducted by Rev. D. H. Comau, formerly of Virginia, but now of the W. N. Conference. These meetings have resulted in great spiritual good to the comunity and proven of great benefit to the church.

A case that is of considerable county interest and of legal importance is that of J. H. Roberts. Mr. Roberts has been in past years a good citizen and a man of some property. A short time ago he applied and was admitted as an inmate to the county home as his physical condition was such as to incapacitate him for doing anything, or taking needed care of himself. While at the county home it was found that he was giving checks to relatives, one in particular for $800, upon one of the county banks. The county commissioners learning of this, have taken out an injunction this week before Judge G. S. Ferguson to prevent the payment of the $800 check. The hearing of this injunction will be before Judge Bragaw at Fayetteville Wednesday of this week. As is well known, any money or property belonging to a county home inmate goes to the county to help the keeping of such an inmate, who may have such means.

An informal meeting of the Southport Light & Power Co., was held last Thursday night, at which the progress of this company was shown in way of electric lighting for this city. The contract for poles and wires has been given, the powerhouse is practically ready to start up and provide the "juice", so that within 60 days the streets here will be lighted and the "lantern brigade" can disband; also such stores and homes that are wired can have electric lights.

Four days this week, 250 of the soldiers stationed at Fort Caswell have been camping out at a point on the beach two miles below the Fort, known as the "hogpens." This outside camp work is part of the regular prescribed service that takes place each year.

THE COXE ESTATE.

Construction of Modern Highway and Building of Fills.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 21.—The Coxe estate has started work on a project which will mean much to the development of the city. This is the construction of a street from Southside avenue on the Smith estate property up the ravine to Patton avenue just below Zindal's bakery. The new street will have an easy grade and most of the freight hauling from the Southern depot will be done over it. The street is to be 50 feet wide and the maximum grade will not be much over 5 per cent. The construction of some of the filling has already been started and there is also being built a storm sewer, over 100 yards of which has been constructed.

The dirt for the fills will be taken from the property of the Coxe estate on Patton avenue, where a great deal of excavation must be done if other buildings are to be erected. It is said that one of the fills will be 45 feet high and will require 90,500 cubic yards of dirt. The route of the street is about the same as that surveyed several years ago by L. A. Farinholt for an electric line from the passenger station.

With a view toward the disposition of the dirt excavated in leveling the property on Patton avenue the Coxe estate two years ago bought the Slagle Hotel property and half interest in a long strip of land in the ravine behind Ravenscroft from Haywood Park.

BATTERY PARK HOTEL.

Large Amount of Money to be Spent for Improvements.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 21.—Contracts have been let by the estate of Frank Coxe through which during the next few months between $65,000 and $75,000 will be spent in the improvement of the Battery Park Hotel, and during the first part of November about 100 workmen will be employed so that the improvements may be finished as soon as possible. It is expected that the work will be completed by the time the tourists begin to arrive for the Summer season. Most of the work will be done in the interior of the building.

The third and fourth floors will be entirely rearranged, but the improvements will not be confined to these. The whole building is to be greatly improved, new furniture installed and the grounds will also be further beautified.

According to the plans every room in the hostelry is to be provided with a bath and with hot and cold water; new hardwood floors are to be laid and modern electrical fixtures installed. The heating plant will be enlarged and another passenger elevator put in. Two floors will be re-furnished throughout, and new rugs and carpets have been bought. The floors will be remodeled one at a time, so as not to interfere with the entertainment of guests.

MAXTON NEWS NOTES

Mrs. J. L. McLean Passes Away—State Senator Lockhart to Speak

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 21.—Mrs. J. Luther McLean died at her home here about 8 o'clock Saturday night. She is survived by her husband and four grown children, Miss Clarkie McLean, Malcolm, Martin Luther and Lacy. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. B. McIlwaine from the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member.

During the present Senatorial campaign Senator F. M. Simmons, Gov. W. W. Kitchin and Hon. Claude Kitchin have spoken here in the interests of the Simmons and Kitchin contingents of the three-cornered fight for the toga.

On Thursday, of the present week, a representative of Judge Walter Clark, Hon. Jas. Lockhart, will speak here, giving all an opportunity to hear every side of the contest. There are very few of Judge Clark's followers here but Mr. Lockhart will be greeted by a full audience for the word has gone out that his speech is the bitterest of the present campaign.

CLARK IN SAMPSON.

Freedom From Abuse, Speech in Clinton Well Received.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 21.—Chief Justice Walter Clark addressed the people of Sampson here today in the interest of his candidacy for the Senate. He had a good, representative audience and made a strong speech, mainly in support of the measures for which he stands. His criticism of his opponents was free from bitterness and his argument upon a high plane. Its freedom from abuse was relished by the Democracy of Sampson and he gained some votes.

Wash your clothes with

GOLD DUST

Good soap washes clothes well—if you use enough elbow grease; but Gold Dust washes them more thoroughly—and with little or no rubbing. Gold Dust saves half your time and spares your poor back.

Another great advantage of Gold Dust—use any kind of water you like. Gold Dust softens the hardest water and makes it soft as rain water.

Gold Dust is just a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, with other cleansing ingredients added to make it work more thoroughly and quickly than soap ever can.

Just try Gold Dust next washday and see how much time you save.

You can buy a large package of Gold Dust for 5 cents.

SUMMER SKIN DISEASES

During the summer most persons are annoyed with pimples, boils, rashes, or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease. A perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened and it becomes a sharp, acrid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. The eruptions may be glossed over and inflammation reduced by the application of washes, cosmetics, salves, etc., but no skin affection can ever be permanently cured in this way; only pure blood can make healthy skin. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S. S. S. builds the circulation up to its normal strength, increases its nutritive powers and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin instead of being irritated with acid humors and impurities, is nourished and healed by a plentiful supply of rich, pure blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Tuesday, October 22, 1912.

Jack Rose seems to have done it to make a raise for Lieut. Becker.

If we could see ourselves as others see us we would often take a laugh at our own expense.

We judge from the spirit of the campaign that President Taft hasn't got the ghost of a show, except for second place.

A disappointed politician is sure to "come back" and make trouble if he knows anything on those who had a hand in disappointing him.

The "silent vote" may as well come right out and make a noise. The campaign funds are too small to make a man hold back for the last moment.

A judge has decided that a husband is justified in lieing to his wife under certain circumstances. All men will decide on the circumstances for themselves.

It might seem strange that a Pennsylvanian blew up his own home, but many men blow in so much money they never have a home of their own to blow up.

If the earnings and incomes of people are not increased, the cost of living will have to be reduced so far as reduction of the tariff can help in that direction.

The groom at a New York wedding a few days ago, gave in his name as Turpdullmerkaw. An alarm clock that will wake up Mr. and Mrs. Turpdullmerkaw will certainly have to know its business.

Minneapolis boasts of a two-year-old kid who can box, stand on his head, skin-the-cat, cut somersaults, swim and climb a tree. No doubt his father dotes on him as the Bull Moose of the future.

Col. Roosevelt now says he feels "as lively as a bulldog", and on Saturday he defiantly remarked: "I ask for no quarter." We don't blame him a bit. A quarter wouldn't buy a pound of first-class steak in any market in the country.

The Republican majority in 1904 is explained since it has been revealed that at least $2,280,018 was subscribed to elect Roosevelt. Of that amount 73 1-2 per cent. was subscribed by trusts because the Republican party is the trustee of the trusts.

Col. Roosevelt has inveighed incessantly against the bosses, but after he had been shot he became subject to the rules and by-laws laid down by Mrs. Roosevelt at the hospital. He will now make an exception of the bosses whose rule is benevolently tyrannical.

This is the last week to register for the election. Register and vote. A big vote means a greater majority for Wilson and a larger representation for your county in the Democratic State, Congressional and District conventions. This is one way to make New Hanover's influence felt.

The 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg next July is going to be an immense affair. Already Pennsylvania is arranging to send 40,000 veterans and 10,000 of her National Guard to participate in that great event. Thousands of Confederates and Southerners will also attend.

The man who believes that a trust which would subscribe $100,000 to elect a Republican President and do so cheerfully without the hope of reward or continued license, will please communicate at once with the Spanish gentleman who, for a stipulated sum, will tell him how to recover a valise full of money left for him in the old country.

SOWING DRAGON'S TEETH.

Senator Dixon, manager of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign, will not make much out of his attempt to blame Wilson, Taft and the newspapers for creating the sentiment which, as he claims, has resulted in the shooting of Roosevelt. President Taft and Governor Wilson have both abhorred and denounced the assault of a madman upon the ex-President, and we have no doubt they deeply regret the real cause which led up to it in spite of Senator Dixon's contention about it.

The real cause of it is the strife and bitterness that has characterized the campaign. That is deplored, but neither Taft nor Wilson began it. Certainly Wilson had no share in it, for he has time and again refused to even "talk back" at Roosevelt. He has declined to exchange personalities with him. The plain truth is, the methods Col. Roosevelt adopted in this campaign have startled the world. He has hurled epithets, and has especially assailed President Taft with every word he can think of, except "cussing." Even Taft stood it a long time and only commenced to fight back when he felt like he was "a rat in a corner." No reasonable person can blame the President. This from the New York Financial and Commercial Chronicle will be accepted generally as the correct version of the reasons why a crazy man has been stirred up to the point of assassination:

"The most sensational event of this week, the attempt on the life of Mr. Roosevelt, has elicited expressions of horror and regret all over the civilized world, and all right-minded men are as one in deploring it, but rejoicing that it was unsuccessful. There is not a shred of evidence to justify the deduction that the assault was anything more than the act of a disordered person, brooding over imagined wrongs and seized by the delusion that he was called to protect the country from the third term. From that, as from all possible evils, the country must protect itself by its own good sense; an individual intervention is un-American and exotic.

"Yet there is one moral which the country ought not to fail to perceive and ought not to shrink from contemplating: It is that this shocking incident of a political campaign may be tracked back to the haste, the impulse and the excess which have long been Mr. Roosevelt's characteristics in both deed and word, especially in his public deliverances. In language which inevitably stirs class hatreds, exaggerates present evils and suggests to superficial persons violent remedies, Mr. Roosevelt has been sowing dragon's teeth, though he may not have realized it. Appeals to the passions rather than arguments addressed to the reason are always dangerously exciting to weak minds; and it should not be thought strange that the intense glare of notoriety which Mr. Roosevelt so delights in and has been carried by him nearly to the breaking point in the past eight months has moved one unbalanced person to imagine himself called to be a National deliverer. We shall miss the best lesson of this affair if we fail to see that too sudden and violent remedies and too strenuous methods of urging them are not adapted to a representative and popular government.

"There is a suggestiveness in the prompt announcement that the Taft and Wilson central bureaus had canceled the dates of their speakers, pending Mr. Roosevelt's complete recovery, and that henceforth the campaign will probably avoid invective and adhere closely or more closely to the principles involved. This means that heretofore it has resembled a gladiatorial combat rather than an exposition of principles, for the latter need not be withheld from presentation because one combatant has been withdrawn."

However much it may be deplored that Col. Roosevelt became a victim, it may have been Taft or Wilson and the cause could have been traced back to the same source. The truth is, the campaign has been pitched on a low plane, and we see no need of anybody's denying it. The evidence is too plain for Senator Dixon to attempt to shift the blame. It will react on his party in the minds of fair men.

ED p.... ETAOIN ETAO N N

IT SEVERS REPUBLICAN TIES

Many Republicans in North Carolina seem to be perfectly willing to sever their ties with the Republican party to ally themselves with the Progressive party, but others cling to the idea that they can vote for Roosevelt and continue to regard themselves as Republicans. However, it is not for a voter to say what he is. That question is settled by the party organizations, just as the North Carolina State Democratic committee is at this time endeavoring to do.

Our State committee met in Raleigh last night to revise its definition of a Democrat, and it is presumed that more latitude will be given to voters than is contained in the committee's rule adopted some weeks ago. Since primary elections are to be adopted as the means of making nominations, it is interesting to note that in Pennsylvania the Republican organization has long ago decided upon the qualifications necessary to vote in a Republican primary. The rule there is to let a man vote in a primary if he has voted the majority of the ticket. In that connection the Chester (Pa.) Republican says:

"We understand some of our friends think they can vote the new Washington party ticket this Fall and still claim to be Republicans. The law says otherwise. No one can vote in Republican primaries who has not voted for a majority of the Republican candidates on the Republican ticket at the preceding election. The thirty-eight Presidential electors on the Washington party ticket constitute a large majority of the ticket, and those who vote for them will be no longer Republicans. Let there be no misunderstanding as to that."

Please note the purpose of the Chester paper's warning to Republicans. It is aimed to remind men not to break their party ties or else they can no longer be regarded as Republicans. They will rule themselves out of the Republican party, and we have no doubt that will cause many to hesitate about voting the Washington party ticket, which is the Bull Moose party in Pennsylvania. However, if men vote according to principle they will not care two straws about breaking party ties. The man who believes Bull Mooseism is right would be a poor Republican, except that his vote will count if he "sticks to the party."

The Chester paper's reminder is aimed to save the day by warning Republicans to stick rather than fly the track. The same argument is being made upon North Carolina Republicans, but as the campaign is drawing to a close it is noticed that the Progressive party people are yet calling themselves Roosevelt Republicans. That may catch many votes for the Bull Moose, but the old line Republicans will not recognize the Bull Moosers any more than they will Democrats.

As a matter of fact, the Progressive party is an entirely distinct party from its ancestor, and a man cannot be a Republican and a Third party man at the same time. While some of the principles of the two parties are the same, the more radical planks of the third party are as different from Republicanism as are things the Democratic party stands for.

We believe the majority of North Carolina Republicans will support both Roosevelt for President and Meares for Governor. There is not as much Republicanism in the North Carolina Republican party as there is in the National organization, hence Republicans will not hesitate to break the tie that has heretofore bound.

HOW TO GROW BIG TOMATOES

The season is passed for growing tomatoes but it may be well to remember a new plan to produce big ones next season. The Louisville Times mentions the fact that Mr. Calhoun Smith, a Kentuckian, has been exhibiting tomatoes so huge that they weighed an average of 22 ounces, or nearly one and a third pounds.

Mr. Smith explains that he accomplishes this result by a system of irrigation of his own. The Times says of Mr. Smith's plan:

"At the side of each tomato plant when it is set out Mr. Smith imbeds a quart can. This can has numerous holes punched in its bottom and the side nearest the plant. Every few days, with the exception of the times it rains, these cans are filled with water. The water seeps through the holes in the bottom and side of the can and causes the roots to grow remarkably. Weekly the amateur farmer pours a liquid fertilizer in the cans with the water and the plants flourish. Every blossom bears fruit, and excellent examples of the luscious 'love apple' are the result."

The Kentucky plan seems to be quite a plausible one, but we rather suspect that our old friend, Mr. David B. Watson, of Asheville, can equal Mr. Smith as a tomato grower. The Asheville man has accomplished some marvelous results and the Asheville Citizen should give us an account of his methods and experiments for the benefit of growers.

Two years ago, the Hon. James A. Lockhart, of Anson county, introduced an anti-trust law with teeth. It immediately bit the dust and he is now satisfied that it was muzzled so it could not even gnaw on anything as tough as a trust. He does not like the way the teeth of his anti-trust bill were extracted, but he seems to believe it was done to prevent it from barking up the wrong tree.

The man who will vote for Woodrow Wilson on the 5th of November, will demonstrate that he is at least willing to do what he can to free himself from the tax levied upon him for the enrichment of others. A fellow who is made to pay tribute to another is a fit subject for emancipation. Future history will record such an unjust tax as one of the infamies of our Republican government.

Governor Joe Brown, of Georgia, has issued a proclamation to civil officers in Georgia, to make more determined efforts than ever to suppress disorder and lawbreaking. While so much of it is going on, it is a good idea for Governors to take note of the fearful record that is being made during their administrations. There are a whole lot of things a Governor can try to do while he is Governor.

The Buffalo Express thinks Taft is entitled to support because he favors "scientific revision of the tariff according to the recommendation of a board of tariff experts." Revision that way might be possible, but owing to the fact that it is so very improbable we prefer to see a Democratic Congress do the work without piddling around while waiting on the recommendation of a tariff board that was appointed with a view to save the protective system. The tariff board never would have been appointed except for the possibility of the election of a Democratic Congress. So long as Congress is Republican, the tariff board would be about as much desired as a poor relation at a society function.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We do not blame Mr. Meares for continuing his campaign for the Governorship. There is as much of an excuse for staying in as there was for getting in.—Durham Herald.

The sugestion by the Monroe Enquirer that the South is no propagation ground for the Presidential assassin, is entirely in order. It is easy to recall that Garfield and McKinley were slain on Northern soil. When Mr. Taft came South, he was surrounded by a bodyguard of detectives under the direction of Maj Archie Butt, who were always close enough to grasp any arm that might be raised. But no arm was raised and no hand was extended other than in token of Southern fellowship. It rather looked like some of the Northern idea about the South, that, as the late J. P. Caldwell once said, the people here go on all fours and live in hollow trees, still prevailed. But one of the guards, who had sized up this writer as an individual who wouldn't do the President any harm if given the chance, became confidential. He said the President did not engage a bodyguard for fear of any Southern man, but rather to guard against the possibility of any enemy taking advantage of the known safety of Mr. Taft in the South, and following him here to get an opportunity. There was good reason in that, but any follower having designs on the President would have found in his Southern friends surrounding him a stronger and a more alert protection than his detectives could have afforded.—Charlotte Chronicle.

One of the common questions asked since the deplorable shooting of Mr Roosevelt by a madman has been whether the act would make votes for the colonel in his candidacy for President? Putting aside the belief of Bull Moosers that the attack upon their nominee will "bring him a million votes", the cooler judgment of political observers is, that after the first excitement has died away the result will be comparatively negative. It is their view, first, that the act of the would-be assassin will be recognized as that of a half-crazed individual; second, that the "emotional vote" is already committed to Roosevelt, and that such additionas to his support as it will cause will be only of those persons relatively few in number, who would have swung to him in any event. In short, their notion is that the shooting in the long run will not materially change the outcome of the campaign; that the "cold politics" of the situation remains about as it would have been had Col. Roosevelt proceded with his speaking tour without a 'ragic interruption. William J. Bryan lucidly sums up the point of view that good citizens should take of the assault upon Roosevelt, by declaring that the issues of this campaign should not be determined by the act of a maniac. They must be settled by the sane, rather than the insane. There are serious principles involved, and if Roosevelt is to be elected President it should be because of what he has done in the past and what he purposes to do. A person demented however cowardly and dastardly his deed, is not the arbiter to whom to submit a Presidential choice.—Chester (Pa.) Republican.

DON'T WANT ANY MORE PRIMARIES.

Delta, N. C., Nov. 3, 1900.

Editor Star:—Having no sympathy whatever with the Senatorial primary movement, opposed to it from its very incipiency, I am fully persuaded as the contest progresses that no good will result from it for the success of the Democratic party in the future, for whoever is chosen—I sincerely trust it will be the Hon. F. M. Simmons—will make enemies of the opposition, invite disintegration in the ranks of the party, cause wrangling dissensions, unwarrantable and unjust criticisms among our own friends, thus making us the more vulnerable to the attacks of the enemy.

When I see, as I have in the past few days, men who have not voted a Democratic ticket for years and failed to vote for the white men who were representing the views and principles of the White Man's Party, but on the contrary did all in their power to defeat them and the cause in which they were engaged, sporting Carr buttons and "shooting off their mouths" in his behalf, it is getting time for the stalwarts of the Democratic party to be on their guard and up and doing, lest the fruits of the great victory won in August will be partly lost and we will have been delivered over into the hands of the enemy.

The patriots of old provided the ways and means for the election of U. S. Senator and a departure from the old landmarks is an innovation as much to be deplored as it is unnecessary and detrimental to the peace and dignity of our commonwealth. It would have been far wiser to have left it to the good judgment of the General Assembly—in whose integrity I have an abiding faith and strict confidence—to choose the Senator in the usual manner and not reduce them to the condition of men automata or machines, depriving them of one of the highest prerogatives of their honorable position.

But since it is decreed by those who, perhaps, know best that we are to have the primary, it behooves every Democrat to be at his post on the day of election and stay there until the polls are closed, seeing to it that the principles of the Democratic party are not betrayed or surrendered by abandoning our valiant and faithful leader in such a momentous crisis. Let every man stand manfully by his oars, permitting only those who are honorably entitled by past and present party affiliations to vote in the primary election and I firmly believe Mr. Simmons, as he deserves, will be the choice of a majority of such vote.

Respectfully,
J. W. S. ROBINSON.

The above was written and published in The Star twelve years ago, lacking a few days, and I see no reason now for changing my opinion either as to men or measures. On the contrary, I have seen the prediction verified, and we are now going through one of the most unfortunate campaigns in the Senatorial primary that men in high position in the Democratic party were ever engaged in.

The honorable and high position attained by Senator Simmons in the closing session of the past Congress, his devotion to duty, while being assailed at home and misrepresented all over the State, his exalted and dignified manner of conducting the canvass places him in a class above his competitors, and entitles him to the support of all true Carolinians who value the welfare of the people and the success of the Democratic party above the desire to gratify the insatiate ambition of his rivals.

Very respectfully,
J. W. S. ROBINSON.

THAT TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

(By S. A. M.)

Why should our city give all this money?
Well, really now—that question seems funny.
We thought ere this, every one would be knowing
That this was the time to make a big showing.
Just reason out, and you'll see at a glance,
That now, more than ever, is Wilmington's chance
To outclass all cities, the same in size,
And make the whole Nation just open its eyes.
To accomplish this task it takes lots of work;
Each must do his part, nobody must shirk.
When the committee calls on you, just dig down and say—
'I give you this gladly—it's Wilmington's way.

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Large Number of Defendants Faced His Honor Yesterday—Some Go to Roads or Farm—Bunch of Negro Gamblers.

Recorder Furlong had the usual number of Monday morning defendants in his court yesterday morning and the session lasted until about noon. Two or three defendants went to the roads, one was bound over to Superior Court, while numerous others were fined and taxed the costs for offenses of less importance.

Capt. Warren Moore, of the river steamer Cadet, who Saturday morning shot with a rifle but did not seriously wound Peter Jenkins, colored, who is said to have been throwing coca-cola bottles at him at the time, was given hearing an a charge of assault with deadly weapon. Jenkins was tried on a similar charge. Both were found guilty and fined $25 each and the costs.

Probable cause was found in a case against James Raleigh, colored, charged with statutory larceny, and he was sent over to Superior Court, being committed to jail in default of $200 bond. It is alleged that Raleigh took one of Mr. Geo. W. Branch's horses from his stables, rode it off and later returned the animal. The negro is charged in another warrant with riding off a horse belonging to Mrs. Branch and later returning it. The offense is what is known as temporary larceny and a heavy penalty is provided.

Paul Aman, a young white man, was charged with throwing glass in the streets. A nol pros with leave was taken. The young man operates an automobile and it is said that the wind shield broke in the street, near Fourth and Market streets. He claimed that he paid a negro to remove the glass from the street, but it was said that the negro did not get further with it than the plaza.

Alex. Cobb and Levi Robinson, colored, charged with jumping on a street car, were found guilty and required to pay the costs. Henry Maybank, colored, was assessed $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. The case against Noble Evans, colored, charged with riding a bicycle at night without a light, was continued until Wednesday. A case against James Walton, a white man, charged with selling two half pints of whiskey to Tate Brown, white, and receiving therefor 70 cents, was continued until tomorrow. Brown is charged with drunkenness and the case against him was also continued until tomorrow.

The following negroes pleaded guilty to a charge of gambling and were each fined $5 and costs. Paul Moseley, Joe Watters, Arthur McIver, Chas. Hankins, Robt. Russ, Justice General, Westlay Hines, Jim Edwards, Chas. Brown. Bryant Jones and Samuel Julian, colored, were charged with a similar offense, but went on the stand and denied that they had been gambling. Officers testified that they saw the negroes gambling. The Recorder considered that the negroes were lying and gave Julian three months and Jones 30 days on the county roads.

Clarence Williams, colored, was found not guilty of a charge of gambling. Chas. Brown, colored, was fined $25 and costs for keeping a gambling house.

CARD FROM MR. MACK GODWIN.

To the Editor:—Kindly give me space in your columns for the following statement: I have been informed by a friend of mine that during the time of July term of court that Mr. J. R. Kennedy was carrying around a petition and collecting money claiming that it was to be turned over to me for a purpose of hush money. I wish to state that this was done without any knowledge whatsoever to me and will truthfully say that I have never received one cent from any one and did not know of this occurrence until I was informed of the fact by a friend Sunday morning.

White Youths Enter Store

The store of Messrs. W. H. Bardin and Dan Jones at Fourth and Bladen streets, was entered Sunday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock by three white youths, whose names have been furnished the police. The visit of the youngsters was expected and Mr Bardin was in the store to greet them. When they heard some one in the store they hurried away without taking anything that belonged to the firm. A Sunday or two ago the store was entered and Mr. Bardin rather expected another visit Sunday, therefore decided to spend a portion of the afternoon in the store. The boys entered from some vacant rooms on the second floor.

Thief Steals Her Handbag.

The following from Sunday's Baltimore Sun will be of interest here: "Ascertaining the time a train for Wilmington, N. C., from one of the clerks in the bureau of information at union station last night, Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, of that city, had her handbag stolen. When she received the information desired she looked for the handbag and found it had disappeared."

INCREASE WEIGHT QUICKLY.

Simple Way for the Thin and Pale to be Plump and Rosy.

Samose can hardly be termed a medicine, it is in reality a flesh forming food. Taken before or after meals, it mingles with the food you eat, enables it to assimilate and readily digest, so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness.

After Samose has been used a week or ten days a noticeable gain in weight is seen. The sallow complexion will become rosy, the sunken cheeks will have a ruddy glow, the eyes will be bright, the breath sweet and the step elastic.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.'s customers have told them of the remarkable results following the use of Samose, the great flesh forming food, and they are so thoroughly convinced of its reliability that they are selling it under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not do is claimed for it. You who are d in poor health cannot afford nother day pass without getting ox of Samose on those terms.

GREEKS LEAVE FOR HOME

Seven From Wilmington Have Answered Call of Their Country—Patriotic Meeting Held Sunday Afternoon

Following a patriotic gathering of their countrymen in the Odd Fellows' Hall in the afternoon, when over $1,100 was raised in 15 minutes to aid in the fight against the Turks, seven Greek citizens departed on the evening train Sunday for New York city, hence they will sail for their native land to take up arms with others of their fellows against their ancient enemies of the Ottoman Empire. One or two more Greeks will leave in a few days. If volunteers were called for a large number would offer their services in defense of their country, but at present volunteers are not wanted.

Those leaving Sunday evening were Paul Sofrinis, Michael Mansouras, Jim Brown, George Ziozias, Nich Courtoulias, P. Mardakis, P. Sardis. Nearly all the Greeks of the community were at the union station to bid their fellow countrymen goodbye and the parting was very pathetic. There is little probability of any of the seven ever again meeting those whom they bade goodbye at the union station.

The meeting Sunday afternoon was attended by a number of Americans as well as a 100 or more Greek citizens and all joined in the spirit of the occasion. Mr. D. G. Vafiadi, Royal Consul for North and South Carolina, called the meeting to order and introduced Hon. John D. Bellamy, who presided. Mr. Vafiadi made a short talk in English and then made an address in Greek. He expressed a deep sense of gratitude for the words of encouragement he has received from the Americans, who are in sympathy with Greece in her fight against Turkey. Hundreds of Greeks are leaving New York on almost every steamer to join in the fight and he called attention to the fact that money is needed to pay their way across to the old country. Primarily, the meeting was called, he said, for the purpose of raising funds to aid his country in the war. Mr. Vafiadi said that Greece is not going to war for freedom, for this she has enjoyed for the past 80 years, but for the liberty of the Greeks who have been under the Turkish oppression.

Mr. Bellamy made a very strong speech and, no doubt, did much to fan the flame of patriotism in the breasts of the Greeks who were present. Mr. Bellamy said that he had always been interested in the fights the smaller nations of the world make against the larger and more powerful in an effort to gain or maintain their freedom. Ever since he began to read history he has admired the Greeks and no nation, he said, had contributed more to the world than Greece. He named over many orators, poets, generals and philosophers, who are famous in history. Mr. Bellamy declared that Turkey should be driven out of Europe. In conclusion he said that it is the duty of all the Greeks, when the call comes, to strike for God and their native land.

Mr. Vafiadi's address in Greek was listened to with the keenest interest by the Greeks and he was frequently applauded. Following his remarks in his native language contributions were called for and nearly every Greek in the hall went forward and gave something, the total contribution being $1,106. Mr. Vafiadi announced that $300 of this amount was given by two Greek citizens of Goldsboro, $75 was raised among the Greeks in Newbern and $100 was contributed by an American citizen, whose name he was not at liberty to make public.

Col. Walker Taylor was called upon and made a few remarks, referring especially to a patriotic demonstration he witnessed among the Greeks in Atlanta last week. When Colonel Taylor had finished "Judge" G. W. Bornemann rushed up to the exchequer's desk waving a $1 bill in his hand. "Dis $1 I give to beat the Greeks," said the "judge," who quickly realized his mistake and promptly corrected it.

Yesterday Mr. Vlafiadi forwarded $600 of the amount collected Sunday to her Royal Highness Princess Sofie in Athens, for the relief fund. He also forwarded $300 to the Pan-Hellenic Union in New York.

Col. Croswell Injured

Many Wilmington friends will read with regret the following from Saturday's Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. J. J. Croswell was very seriously hurt Tuesday, and had a narrow escape from death. Mr. Croswell was on an outing at the Moore's Creek Battle Ground in Pender county. He and a party of friends were riding in a wagon down a steep incline, when the wheels struck an object by the side of the road and slanted the wagon to one side, throwing Mr. Croswell out on his head and bruising him badly. The horses moved on, and before they could be stopped one of the wheels struck Mr. Croswell on his jaw and came near running over his nec which would probably have caused death."

Little Daughter Passes

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ellers have the sympathy of a great many friends in the death of their nine-months-old daughter, Rena E. Ellers, which occurred at the family residence at Winter Park Gardens Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The funeral was held from the residence at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. J. M. Plowden and the interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Saved By His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me. A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

HON. IREDELL MEARES SPEAKS

Not Exceeding One Hundred People Turned Out to Hear Roosevelt Candidate for Governor—Not In Best Form

Not exceeding one hundred persons turned out last night in response to the announcement that the Hon. Iredell Meares, one of the two Republican candidates for Governor of this State, would address his fellow citizens on the political issues of the day.

This may be accounted for by either of two reasons—New Hanover is not interested in the new policies of the Third Termer or the announcement of the speaking had been rather brief and limited. At any rate the audience was small and there was little enthusiasm. Mr. Meares is ordinarily a strong and forceful debater, an orator of no mean ability and those of his friends who were attracted by the announcement that he would speak were rather disappointed in his effort last night.

Although the speaking had been advertised for 8:15 o'clock, it was a quarter of an hour later before the crowd seemed to justify the speaker in beginning his address. But for the righteousness of his cause, Mr. Meares said that the size of his audience would be discouraging but he reflected that all great history-making incidents had taken place under much the same indifferences of the people and referred to the case of Martin Luther and of the Jesuits who journeyed up the Saint Lawrence.

Launching his speech, he traced the birth of the Roosevelt party and took up some of its principles and policies, enumerating the minimum wage scale for women, the workmen's compensation, the Roosevelt tariff policy and the position of the Third Termers with reference to the trusts. He extolled Andrew Carnegie and William Rockefeller and told why great combinations of wealth and industries were not inimical to the people and that the higher cost of living did not have its cause in the tariff, reasonable protection being strongly advocated.

The first hour of his speech was devoted to these preliminaries and the remainder of it to the other principles and policies of his party. Mr. Meares was heard with interest, even though it was conceded by his friends of all parties, who were represented in the audience, that he was by no means in his usual form.

SEMINOLE RENDERS AID

Cutter Responds to Distress Call of Burning Steamer Berkshire

The revenue cutter Seminole left her dock here early Sunday morning in response to calls by her wireless for help from the Merchants' & Miners' steamer Berkshire, reported with cargo of cotton afire off Cape Lookout. The cutter reached Lookout Sunday night and is standing by to render any aid possible and assist in landing the 21 passengers aboard.

Berkshire was first reported afire shortly after midnight Saturday and was then about 43 miles northeast of Cape Lookout. A fierce fire was raging in the forward hold and the master of the steamer raced her to Cape Lookout cove and anchored about 200 yards off shore, so it would be an easy matter to land the passengers aboard if the fire got beyond control.

Capt. Hart had the cotton hatch opened Sunday and turned several streams of water upon the blazing cargo. Some of the cotton was brought on deck, but the crew only attempted to keep the fire under control until assistance arrived.

The Berkshire sailed from Savannah, Ga., Friday with a small number of passengers and a cargo consisting largely of cotton. After the fire was discovered wireless calls for assistance soon brought the Clyde liner Apache, but seeing the Berkshire was in no immediate danger, the Apache soon proceeded on her way. Revenue cutters from nearby stations were also summoned and the Seminole, from Wilmington, was the first to reach the distressed vessel.

The Seminole last night expected to land 20 of the passengers ashore at Beaufort in order that they might proceed by rail to their destination.

SERIES OF MEETINGS

Revival Is Being Held This Week at Salvation Army Hall

A special revival meeting is being held this week at the hall of the Salvation Army, at corner Fourth and Wright streets. The meeting will continue through next Monday. It is announced that these meetings will be held according to the plan of the Wesleyan Methodist church of America. The public is most cordially invited to attend. There will be services every evening at 7:30 o'clock. Revs. T. E. Payne and H. A. Forester, evangelists, are doing the preaching and Mrs. Forester is leading in the singing.

Continued Until Next Week

The case against Mr. C. H. Shoemaker, manager of the local store of S. H. Kress & Co., charged with failure to provide proper and suitable seats or stools for the use of his clerks when they are not busy, set for trial yesterday at noon before Justice J. C. King, was continued until next Monday. The defense made an application for removal and the case will likely be heard before Justice W. A. McGowan. The action was instituted about ten days ago. J. A. McNorton, Esq., represents the prosecution, while Robt. Ruark, Esq., appears for the defense. There are a large number of witnesses on both sides and the hearing next Monday afternoon will be held in the Court House.

Funeral of Little Son

The funeral of Jones W. Biggs, the four-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Biggs, whose death occurred Saturday at the home, No. 57 Delgado, was held Sunday from the residence, conducted by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, assisted by Rev. J. M. Plowden. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

LAD BROUGHT BACK HOME

Frank Mills, 15 Years Old, Held on a Charge of Forgery—Arrested in Savannah—Hearing Will be Held Saturday.

Charged specifically with forging a check for $18.35, which was cashed by Peck & Holloway, hardware dealers, about ten days ago, Frank Mills, 15-year-old son of Mrs. E. G. Mills, who was arrested in Savannah, Ga., on a warrant from this city, was brought back to Wilmington yesterday at noon by Deputy Sheriff A. L. Kelly, who went to the Georgia city for him Saturday. While returning without extradition papers the lad did not seem at all glad to be back home again, but on the contrary bemoaned the fact that he had had more than one check cashed, for had he stopped with the one he probably would not have been arrested.

He was arraigned in the afternoon before Justice J. C. King, who committed him to the county jail until Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in default of $500 bond. The preliminary hearing is scheduled to be held at that time. The prosecution is represented by J. A. McNorton, Esq., while B. G. Empie, Esq., appears for the defense. The latter is quoted as having said he thought the bond was too high and spoke of the possibility of securing a writ of habeas corpus.

The youth expresses no regret for anything he has done. The only thing, he says, that makes him feel the least bit bad is that he had to return to Wilmington. Had he have been able to continue to wander about the country he would have been satisfied, he said. It was suggested that he would be sent to a reformatory for five or six years. This did not seem to bother him in the least. He said that he had already figured all that out and would not be in an institution of the kind longer than three weeks at the most. In fact, he said that there is hardly any institution that would hold him for any considerable period. The following is from Sunday's Savannah Morning News:

"Frank Mills, the boy hobo, heard the news of the charge of forgery made against him yesterday with the disregard of a hardened criminal, and under pressure admitted his guilt.

"Chief Detective J. J. Murphy, yesterday received a warrant from Sheriff Cowan, which formally charged young Mills with forging the name of Mrs. E. G. Mills, his mother to a check for $18.35, payable at the Wilmington bank, on Oct. 8th. The warrant was sworn out before J. C. King, justice of the peace in Wilmington.

"The deputy from Wilmington is expected by the police to arive in Savannah today to take charge of Mills and return him to Wilmington to face the charge of forgery. A message from Sheriff Cowan yesterday stated that a deputy would leave Wilmington during the morning.

"When Frank Mills was questioned in his cell at the station he at first denied all knowledge of the check which he is supposed to have signed with his mother's name.

"'Where did you get the money to come to Savannah on,' he was asked after being told that he was wanted for forgery.

"'I worked for it,' he replied blandly.

"'Did you ever sign your mother's name to a check?' was the next question.

"'No, I never did,' he replied.

"'What about the check you wrote on October 8th—what name did you sign to that?'

"'I signed my own name,' came the answer quick as a flash.

"It was explained to him that it would have been impossible for him to get money signed with his own name unless he had a bank account. He had previously admitted that he never had any money in the bank.

"'Yes,' he replied, after a moment's thought. 'I did sign the check with my mother's name.'

"'Did you know that you were doing wrong?'

"'I did,' he confessed, 'but I spent it all before I left Wilmington.' He appeared to think that the place he spent the money had something in it to mitigate the penalty he would have to suffer.

"Young Mills asked about his mother. He said that he felt sure she would not allow him to be prosecuted for forging her name. He also seemed eager to know when he would be allowed to leave Savannah, and expressed himself as anxious to return to Wilmington and his mother, even though it was in the custody of a deputy sheriff. He denied acquaintance with Sheriff Cowan.

"Yesterday it became necessary to lock both young Mills and young Watkins in separate cells. They have made a very bad name for themselves among the police, who say they cannot tell the truth.

"'Say, I wanta get out o' here,' said young Watkins to a reporter. 'I'll get sick if I stick around here very long. Tell you what I'll do: if you get me out I'll sure go home and never again will I come back to this town.'

"While Mills insists that he is a cousin of Watkins, Watkins denies this, and says that he is but an acquaintance. It is said they tell conflicting stories on almost every subject they are questioned on, and even though neither is aware of the story told by the other, each is quite positive in his statements."

Complaint Filed Yesterday.

Complaint was filed in Superior Court yesterday in the case of John E. Lewis against the Wilmington Door & Lumber Co. The plaintiff is suing for $10,000 damages for alleged injuries received while at work for the defendant in its plant on June 24th, 1912. It is alleged that his left hand was caught by the knives of a planing machine and his thumb and two forefingers were cut off, causing him much suffering and permanent injury. John D. Bellamy & Son represent the plaintiff.

UNDERWENT OPERATION

Mr. J. Allan Taylor Submitted to Knife In Baltimore Infirmary

Mr. J. Allan Taylor, one of Wilmington's most prominent business men, underwent an operation yesterday morning in the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, where he went for treatment about two weeks ago, and his friends in Wilmington and throughout the State will learn with pleasure that he is getting on very nicely indeed, and his complete restoration to health is expected as a result of the operation. Col. Walker Taylor, his brother, received a telegram last night stating that the operation was in every way a success and that the patient was getting along as well as could be expected. His condition is regarded as very favorable. The entire community will hope for Mr. Taylor's early and complete recovery.

DAY OF PRAYER OBSERVED

Impressive Ceremonies by Missionary Union of Wilmington Presbytery.

The Day of Prayer of Wilmington Presbyterial was held at Teacheys on Saturday, October 19th, and notwithstanding the threatened inclement weather a large delegation was present to enjoy the programme which was very interesting and helpful to all. Devotional service was conducted at 10:30 A. M., by Rev. L. E. Wells, following which there was a most interesting address on "Our Work, the Hospital," by Dr. George C. Worth, formerly of China. Following the address there was a prayer and "answered prayer" by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D. A collection for the May Johnson Loan Fund resulted in a very encouraging contribution. After prayer, hymn and the benediction, there was a recess for a bountiful dinner at 12:30 and at the afternoon session, beginning at 2:30 o'clock Dr. G. W. Butler, of Brazil, gave a most enlightening address. Dr. McClure led in prayer and after a hymn organization was given attention by Mrs. Jackson Johnson, president of the Woman's Missionary Union of Wilmington Presbytery. The report of the work was by Miss Murphy after which there were talks on prayer by Mrs. W. H. Sprunt, Miss Margaret Beatty and Mrs. R. W. Hicks. Mrs. J. B. Moore led the closing prayer.

The hearty welcome and bountiful hospitality extended the ladies by their neighbors at Teachey's made them feel glad to be there and the earnest and inspiring addresses listened to on this Day of Prayer, made it in many respects the best observance yet held.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gieschen yesterday afternoon and evening, at their hospitable home on Red Cross street, most happily celebrated their Crystal wedding. During the afternoon and evening many friends called to extend their felicitations and to wish them many happy returns. Numerous presents in cut glass and crystal attested the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Gieschen and all who were so fortunate as to become their guests for the afternoon or evening were charmed with them as host and hostess. The entire home was most beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums ordered especially for the occasion.

SERIES OF PRAYER SERVICES BEING CONDUCTED BY LADIES.

The first of the series of prayer services for missions conducted by the women of the Presbyterian churches of the city was held at Immanuel Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. M. Cumming was in charge of the service and spoke on the topic, "Prayer for the Spread of the Gospel." under the subdivision, "What is the Gospel?"

"Why Should We Spread the Gospel?"

"Where Should We Spread the Gospel?"

"Who Should Do It?"

This interesting service is confidently expected to be but the beginning of a week of blessing to many. This afternoon the meeting will be held in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock and will be led by Mrs. R. W. Hicks. The subject is 'Prayer for Our Theological Seminaries in Foreign Lands." It is hoped that even though these Fall days are busy ones for housekeepers, all women who long for the coming of the Kingdom may find time to attend these intercessory services.

REGULAR MEETING OF DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY.

The regular monthly meeting of Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held Saturday afternoon at the W. L. I. armory with a large attendance. Mrs. Richard Price, the president, presided, and Mrs. C. D. Bell, recording secretary, kept a record of the proceedings. One of the most interesting features of the meeting was the report of the State convention held at Salisbury this month. The report was made by Mrs. Price. She gave a most interesting resume of the proceedings of the State organization. The following were named as the wreath committee for the month: Mrs. E. K. Bryan, Mrs. W. H. Pemberton and Miss Louise Vollers. The president exhibited a copy of a Dixie calendar, published especially for the Southern States, on the margin of which is given many bits of interesting information relative to the struggle between the States. The calendars are sold for $1 a copy and the president will be glad to furnish them to any who desire them. A certain portion of the proceeds will be devoted to the Arlington monument fund.

Mrs. F. L. Huggins, Mrs. W. M. Creasy and Mrs. M. S. Willard are among the members of the local Chapter who will attend the general convention in Washington November 12th.

TO ENTERTAIN PYTHIANS.

Clarendon Lodge Will be Host Tonight—Interesting Programme.

Clarendon Lodge, K. of P., of this city, will entertain its members and all visiting Pythians at its meeting tonight. The real object of the entertainment is to explain more fully the object and aim of the order to a class of some fifty odd who will be initiated on the night of November 21st, using the famous Rathbone Bible for the obligation, which is in itself incentive enough for any would-be Pythian who has a desire to join this order. The officers who will do this work will be the Supreme Chancellor and the Supreme Vice-Chancellor and the Supreme K. of R. & S. The Supreme officers will make only four stops in the State, namely: Greensboro, Charlotte, Goldsboro and Wilmington. The meeting tonight will be of further interest by the celebrating of the anniversary of one of Clarendon's oldest and best members. Light refreshments will be served.

LOCAL DOTS.

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. Albert F. Gibson and Miss Ermina Adams, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Adams, both of this city.

—The British steamer Burnsfield, Capt. Blackmore, arrived yesterday from Shields, light, to receive cargo of cotton for export from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

—News has been received announcing the death of Mr. E. S. Charles, of New York, by Bright's disease. While in Wilmington Mr. Charles was connected with the National Biscuit Co.

—An automobile belonging to Mr. B. Frank Brittain was destroyed by fire Sunday. Mr. Brittain was out riding on the Scott's Hill road when his machine caught fire. It burned rapidly.

—Suit was started in Superior Court yesterday by Samuel Blossom against S. H. Futrell. The action is for the recovery of a mule, valued at $75. John D. Bellamy & Son represent the plaintiff.

—Referring to recent warning to shipping on account of practice at Fort Caswell, the Star is asked by Col. Bennett, commanding, to amend same to read November 7th, 8th, 9th and 11th, instead of dates previously given.

—A demonstration of the Lord Calvert coffee is being made every day this week at the store of the People's Supply Co., on North Front street. The public, ladies especially, are invited to drop in and be served during the demonstration.

—Mr. John Heritos, who has been in business in Wilmington for a number of years, has decided to return to Greece to aid his countrymen in their fight against Turkey, and as soon as he sells his four stores here he will start back for his native land.

—Col. Walker Taylor, Grand Chancellor, K. of P., domain of North Carolina, and Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Supreme Master of Exchequer, have received invitations to attend Pythian rallies at Faison on the evening of October 24th and 25th and a rally at Newbern on November 12th.

—One hundred half pints of whiskey are at police headquarters awaiting the owner. The whiskey was taken in charge Saturday by Plainclothesman Leon George, who found it on a dray with apparently no owner. A card upon the box containing the whiskey bore the name of "William Clark, Wilmington, N. C."

—Dunbars, Lopez & Dukate Co., of New Orleans, one of the largest molasses manufacturing concerns in the country, has been notified by the Chamber of Commerce that owing to the fact that satisfactory warehouse accommodations cannot be secured here they have abandoned for the present the idea of making Wilmington a distributing point.

REV. A. J. HOWELL ORDAINED.

Interesting Service at First Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, assistant to the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was ordained as a Presbyterian minister at the morning service at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. The service was very interesting and impressive, and was largely attended. Mr. Howell was ordained as an evangelist and now takes up the full work of the ministry. Many of his friends outside of the congregation were present to witness the service.

The ordination service was conducted by a commission named at the recent meeting of the Wilmington Presbytery, composed of Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's; Rev. J. M. Plowden, Rev. J. S. Crowley and Ruling Elders W. M. Cumming and Joseph Akerman. Mr. Plowden presided at the service and propounded the questions. Dr. Wells preached the sermon and Dr. McClure delivered the chare to the minister. This completed a most interesting and impressive service.

SINGING CLASS COMING.

Oxford Orphans to Give Concert in Academy Tomorrow Night.

Under the auspices of the local Masonic lodges the singing class of the Oxford Orphans' Asylum will give a concert in the Academy of Music tomorrow night. The price of admission will be 25 cents and already a large number of tickets have been sold. The class visits Wilmington every year and is always heard by a large audience. The class will give a concert at Southport tonight and on Thursday night will give a concert at Burgaw.

The committee in charge of arrangements has offered a $5 gold piece as a prize to the boy or girl selling the largest number of tickets and the two next highest will be given $2.50 each. Tickets may be obtained from Mr. I. W. Solomon at Solomon's Shoe Store.

Arrange for Pythian Meeting.

At the regular meeting last night of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, the Chancellor was authorized to appoint a committee to confer with similar committees from other local Pythian lodges to make arrangements for the big Pythian rally to be held here on the night of November 21st. The committee will be named today and the first meeting will probably be held tomorrow night.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers

Red Nose. The nose is a more delicate organ than most people imagine. It should be touched as little as possible. For undue redness the treatment recommended in following paragraph will be found effective. Apply without rubbing.

Muddy Skin. The sanest, safest and surest method of giving a clear, healthy, transparent appearance to the complexion is to apply ordinary mercolized wax every night for from one to two weeks. This wax, obtainable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), actually takes off a bad complexion by gently and gradually absorbing the thin veil of surface skin. The new skin then in evidence is as fresh and velvety as a young girl's. The wax is applied like cold cream and washed off mornings.

Wrinkles. A harmless lotion made as follows has been found very effective in cases of wrinkles and flabbiness: Powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint. Bathe the face in this occasionally.—Woman's Realm.

..Theatrical..

In "Introduce Me" which will be offered at the Academy of Music Friday night, Miss Della Clarke, the clever author-actress, is making a bid for popular favor with what is said to be a clean, clever comedy full of humorous situations and a story that is sustained right to the finish.

Miss Clarke plays a dual role in that she is a club woman to her husband and one crowd of friends, and a successful author to others. The play's story is built around the "double life" she leads, which gives rise to complications with her husband. The husband dramatizes a book she has written. All the time he is working on it, he hasn't the slightest suspicion that his wife is the book's author. With the success of the play comes the revelation of the author-wife, a straightening out of affairs and finally one last situation on which the curtain drops.

Among the people assisting Miss Clarke in the presentation of the characters are: Luella Smith, Hattie Neville, Harriet Kingston, Pauline Woodward, P. S. Whitham, Gordon De Maine, G. S. Payton and William Barber. Seats will be on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning.

Matinee and Night Saturday

One of the few really successful musical plays of the past season was "Alma, Where Do You Live," which was produced at Weber's Theatre, and which is to be seen at the Academy for matinee and night Saturday.

"Alma" was originally given in New York in German at Adolph Phillips Theatre, where it had a long run, although in that language much fault was found with it on account of its suggestiveness. When translated into English, however, by Mr. George V. Hobart, the salacious features were eliminated and it proved to be a dainty, captivating musical play, and it made such a pronounced hit with New York audiences that it filled Weber's Theatre for the entire season.

In sending it on the road this season, Mr. Weber has provided a first-class production both as to the scenery and the costuming, and has engaged an excellent company, headed by Grace Drew. Others prominent in the cast are Carlton King, and Charles F. Orr, the former a popular comedian who is well-known in all parts of the country, and the latter a high-class tenor of reputation. The advance sale of seats will open Thursday morning instead of Friday at Plummer's. Seats for both performances will be on sale.

"The Pink Lady" Next Monday

"The Pink Lady," the biggest musical comedy hit of a decade, is announced for next Monday night at the Academy of Music, on which occasion Klaw and Erlanger will present it here, with all the lavishness, magnitude and precision of detail that characterized its record-breaking runs in America and Europe.

This musical comedy triumph is undoubtedly the peer of American stage beauty and as criticised by many London critics is a kaleidoscopic succession of costume grandeur, scenic splendor and brilliant electrical color schemes that seem to harmonize into a veritable Alladinlike dream of beauty, excitement and song.

A brilliant feature about the performance is the company's own orchestra of twenty pieces. Seats will go on sale at Plummer's Friday and not Saturday morning.

At the Bijou.

The weather of yesterday again tested the popularity of the Bijou and the test resulted in triumph for the handsome and comfortable amusement palace, because regardless of the drear and disagreeableness of the weather, people flocked to the theatre. Hence, there was big business and, of course, a big time, because the Bijou presented one of the biggest bills it has ever offered. The Bijou is a charmng spot under all atmospheric conditions and the people not only realize this, but they take advantage of it, understanding that solid comfort is always to be found there, as well as a daily new and great show. And the price of admission is never advanced, and it never will be. Always only 5 cents.

Today's big bill is going to be headed by the most intensely exciting and heart-gripping film of the year, "The Uprising," Lubin's latest creation. It will thrill from start to finish, as it vividly tells of an Indian uprising in Arizona and how the trappers go forth to battle. For three days the pioneers and the Red Skins fight, and at last the former conquer. There is a pretty love story wrapped up in the film, which will lend interest.

Not only one, but two great Vitagraphs are stars today, and in one that popular young romantic actor, Mr. Leo Delaney, will play the principal role, while in the other Miss Flora Finch, the noted character actress, will be seen in the stellar part. Both are comedies and are yells for genuine laughter. One "Her Father's Hat" tells a highly spiced story of a young man's blunder, and the other, "Mammoth Life Savers," gives a glimpse of circus life, with an elephant in the role of life saver, as a startling, though humorous climax. Today's big Bijou bill certainly should not be missed.

At the Grand Theatre.

One of Irving Berlin's latest successes will be sung by Mr. Chick at the Grand Theatre today and it should prove a winner. It will be "He Played It on his Fid, Fid, Fiddle Dee-Dee." This song is now the rage in New York City and is being sung at the Hippodrome. Mr. Chick will give it at the Grand Theatre today and all patrons of the pretty little playhouse are asked to drop around and hear it.

While the singing of Mr. Chick is a great, big feature, it is not the only one. There is the complete orchestra and then all the pictures are put on with realistic effects. Today there will be a Vitagraph, "The Counts" and a great comedy, "Weary Starts Things in Pumpkinsville." These are great comedies and will bring a laugh with every line. While it will be to laugh at these pictures there is one other strong one and it is the pathetic story of a so-caled Squawman's Life. The title is "When Edith Played Judge and Jury" and it is a Selig. It should be seen to be appreciated. The scenes are laid in a Wyoming range and a pretty girl, who rides well and is not afraid is the heroine. With these two films there will be a third, all to the good and equally as interesting, only not featured.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. S. P. Hewett, of Rocky Mount, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. T. O. Flynn, of Currie, was among those in the city yesterday on a business trip.

In New York he was joined by Mr. A. J. Mitchell, of this city, who was one of the local fans to journey northward for the championship series.

Home Entered by Robber.

The home of Mr. Clarence Montgomery, at corner of Eighth and Dock streets, was entered by a burglar some time during Friday night. The burglar secured about $65. Mr. Montgomery reported to the police that he went to bed on Friday night and left his trousers hanging on the head of the bed. When he awoke the next morning he found his trousers removed and the money gone. An officer was sent to the scene, but he could not find a clue that might lead to the was made through a window.

Death of Little Son

Robert Caudle, the five-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Caudle, died Sunday afternoon at the home of the parents, No. 14 Delgado. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence, conducted by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, and the interment was in Bellevue cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a great many friends.

CONCERT THIS EVENING

First Number of Boys' Brigade Lyceum Course at the Armory

The first number of the Boys' Brigade Lyceum Course for the present season will be given in the armory this evening, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, when the Metropolitan Grand Concert Company will give one of its famous concerts. The company is composed of musicians of wide reputation and the concert is being looked forward to with considerable interest by the music lovers of the city.

Every seat in the building has already been sold. Those holding season tickets may have them reserved today at Mr. W. R. Dosher's store on North Front street. While most of the seats were reserved yesterday there are still a number left. Indications are that they will go in a hurry this morning.

THE POLICE CALL SYSTEM.

Some Delay Occasioned in Installation of the Plant Here.

A representative of the Gamewell Fire Alarm and Telegraph Company, which has the contract for the installation of the police call system, stated yesterday that it would probably be two or three weeks before the system would be rady for service. He said that there was some difficulty in securing electricians and a number of other troubles are delaying the work somewhat. With the use of the system would be ready for service. He men can be called at any time of the day or night. There will be 15 call boxes and 15 flash light stations. The entire system will be operated by means of a switchboard located in police headquarters, which has been placed in a private office at the station.

EARLY LOSS WAS RECOVERED BIG ARRIVALS CRUSH WHEAT HEAVY SELLING IN STOCKS

Improvement In Cotton Market Was Barely Maintained—Final Tone Steady and Prices Generally 1 to 6 Points Off

New York, Oct. 21.—An opening loss was followed by almost a full recovery in the cotton market today, but the improvement was barely maintained and while the final tone was steady at an advance of 2 points on October, last prices were generally 4 to 6 points net lower.

The market started at a decline of 36@7 points under liquidation by buyers of last week, who were doubtless disappointed by the failure of the weather map to show any unfavorable development of importance over Sunday, and by Liverpool cables. Private advices claiming large offerings of actual and continental selling tended to increase bearish confidence around the local ring, particularly as continental selling was supposed to reflect a bearish view of affairs in the Balkans. There was considerable buying for foreign account in the local market, while there was also a little support from some of the leading spot brokers, and as soon as the weather forecasts were published, prices worked up to within a point or so of the Saturday finals. After the close of Liverpool had shut out arbitrage business, the buying here became less active and the market later was more or less irregular. Prices sagged off 5 or 6 points from the best during the middle of the day under liquidation by early buyers for a turn, who found that frost predictions for North Texas and Oklahoma had not stimulated outside demand to any material extent, but Southern selling here was not as much of a feature as had been predicted on Saturday, and the market later in the afternoon turned firmer on bullish spot positions. Most positions reached the highest level of the day during the last hour.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 10.90; do. gulf, 11.15; sales, 300 bales.

Futures closed steady.

Movement In Final Hour Caused Rapid Diminishing of Quoted Values —Net Losses Two Points— Foreign Situation

New York, Oct. 21.—The feature of today's stock market was the heavy selling of the last hour, which caused rapid diminishing of quoted values, net losses in representative issues ranging from 2 to 4 points. No news accompanied the decline, which was doubtless aided by the operations of the short interest.

The setback was again due in part to foreign influences. London's market was weak, a natural condition in view of the liberal selling there for Berlin and Paris. French rentes suffered another severe decline and private advices received by international bankers indicated extreme uneasiness at the French capital, arising from latest developments in the Balkans.

The local market opened with some moderate losses, these being partially gained in the early afternoon, when it became known that the United States Supreme Court would not hand down an immediate decision in the so-called anthracite cases. The professional element then undertook to advance several specialties and this movement proving mor eor less futile, the list was left to its own devices. Traders were not slow to realize its technical weakness, which included increasing firmness of call money on reduced supplies.

After the close, it developed that Paris and other European exchanges were still at work clearing up last week's wreckage. It was intimated that numerous private settlements were being made in London, Paris and Berlin, to cover up some of the week spots created by the recent liquidation, and that further drastic measures might be necessary to prevent acute demoralization in more than one financial quarter.

Bonds were materially affected by the decline in stocks. Total sales, par value, $1,650,000. United States bonds, unchanged, on call. Total sales, today, 617,000 shares.

THE BEST PROOF

Wilmington Citizens Cannot Doubt It.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they cured.

The Story was told to Wilmington residents.

Time has strenthened the evidence.

Has proven the cure permanent.

The testimony is home testimony—

The proof is convincing.

It can be investigated by Wilmington residents.

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. Some time ago when I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's Drug Store and in a few days after I began their use, my pains and aches disappeared. I have felt so much better in every way since using Doan's Kidney Pills that I have no hesitation in recommending them." (Statement given February 25, 1908.)

No Trouble Since.

On December 27, 1910, Mr. Hansley said: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since I took Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and I am glad to say that they brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former statement."

stroyed and several shops and dwellings were damaged. Kavarna is a Bulgarian town on the Black sea 28 miles northeast of Varna.

After the bombardment of Kavarna, one of the Turkish ships left in the direction of Baltchick. Four others cruised along the coast between Kavarna and Kalikoya, bombarding the villages.

According to advices received tonight Turkish warships also bombarded the barracks and monastery of Euxinograd near Varna, which port they bombarded several days ago. The customs house and two warehousese were damaged.

The Turks attempted a landing, but the two boats launched encountered a heavy fire from the Bulgarian soldiers and returned to the ships.

The Bulgarian government has entered a protest against the bombardment of Kavarna as a violation of international law laid down by The Hague conference. The town is a trading port only and is not defended. No warning was given of the attack.

Fierce Fighting Imminent.

Constantinople, Oct. 21.—It is admitted here tonight that the Bulgarians are established about 120 miles from Adrianople and that a big battle is imminent. The Governor of Adrianople has issued a proclamation warning residents to husband their food, owing to the possibility of investment of the town. He advises those able to leave to do so.

It is announced that an important concentration of the Bulgarian forces has taken place at Koestendil in the southeast of Bulgaria, the objective of which is doubtless the Strumm valley, the easiest road to the heart of Macedonia.

The Turkish government will tomorrow issue a proclamation to the people in the eastern provinces in the shape of a reply to King Ferdinand's message enjoining Moslems to be of good behavior and assuring Christians that they have nothing to fear provided they remain loyal.

It is asserted that in the fighting around Elassona the Greeks lost 1,500 killed.

A special dispatch to Constantinople says Turkish warships sank a Bulgarian torpedo boat, while another escaped by taking refuge in the harbor of Varna. The fortress replied to the Turks and eventually silenced their fire.

According to information received by the Porte, Albanian volunteers under ex-Deputy Hassan Bey, of Pristina, have joined the advance body of Albanians marching on Kursumlija in Servia, 30 miles south of Nish, in the neighborhood of which fighting is now going on. Along the Montenegrin frontier, the situation appears to be unchanged.

JUDGE PARKER ASTOUNDED.

Had No Idea Ryan's Contributions Amounted to $450,000.

New York, Oct. 21.—Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1904, said tonight he was astounded at the "colossal contributions to the Democratic campaign fund in that year by Thomas Fortune Ryan, as revealed in the testimony of before the Clapp committee in Washington today.

"I have read the testimony of Mr. Ryan," said Judge Parker, "and I am astounded. I was always under the impresion that Mr. Ryan and Mr. Belmont were leading contributors to the Democratic campaign because the press said so, but that they were colossal contributors, as now appears, I never knew. Mr. Belmont favored my nomination and Mr. Ryan had vigorously opposed it.

"It now appears from Mr. Ryan's testimony that I to in the campaign, when my election was not even hoped for by him, he paid a vast sum of money to meet debts of the National Committee that the honor of the Democratic party might not be impugned. August Belmont is said to have joined in that undertaking. Neither they nor their friends ever gave to me a hint of this personal sacrifice, not for the candidate, for the party, to which they were attached. For eight years, now, they have suffered reproach, but I, for one, doff my hat to them. For the honor of the Democratic party—not in the hope of electing its candidate—for its defeat was amply assured in the closing weeks of the campaign—they made good the obligations of the organization, not out of the funds of the corporations, but out of their own pockets.

"One outcome of the campaign of 1904 is the abolition of corporate contributions by Federal statutes, and by the statutes of this and many other States. These statutes, supplemented as they have been by acts requiring forced publication of contributions with the names of contributors, ultimately will do away with the practice of raising large sums of money to make merchandise of the votes of citizens, and for this all good citizens will be thankful."

EVANGELISTS AND EVANGELISM

Sensational Church Campaigns Denounced at Convention

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—Evangelists and evangelism occupied attention of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ at the closing sessions of the convention here today. What started out in the afternoon to be a debate on the question whether the methods of the leading evangelists of the Church were "sane and scriptural," developed into a general denunciation of sensational and spectacular means of obtaining "addditions" to the churches. "Whirlwind campaigns," use of decoy "concerts" and other devices or aims described as undignified, were roundly berated by numerous speakers.

KEPT DUAL ACCOUNTS.

Iron Workers' Union Had Private and Public System, Says Stenographer.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 21.—Reading from the financial account books of the International Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers for the period when John J. McNamara, the secretary treasurer was conducting a "campaign of explosions" about the country, Miss Mary C. Dye, former bookkeeper for McNamara, testified at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today that one record of money expended was kept for the union officials and executive board members, while a different record was kept for the public and for members of the union generally.

A regular system of "juggling" the accounts, the government charges, was maintained to conceal payments for dynamiting expenses.

Miss Dye's testimony was that a dual system of recording expenditures was in force prior to 1909, or until the executive board decided to allow McNamara $1,000 a month without requiring any accounting, which continued until after the Los Angeles Times building was blown up. It was out of this $1,000 a month, the government charges, that McNamara paid Ortie McManigal and James B. McNamara for the Pacific coast explosions and for 35 other explosions.

Miss Dye testified that in the books available to the officials, full amounts paid to McNamara, Hockin and others were given, but in the records published in the union magazine less than half the amounts were charged to the individuals, while the difference was charged to "emergency fund by order of the executive board."

The witness said that for the fiscal year ending in 1909, $3,698 was paid to Frank C. Webb, of New York, while $1,572 was recorded in McNamara's report to the union; $4,970 was paid to Hockin, while $2,043 was reported to the union, and $2,542 was paid to J. J. McNamara, while $1,987 was reported to the union as having been paid to him, the differences in each case being charged to the emergency fund.

The government alleges $20,000 was represented in aggregated differences and was used for dynamiting purposes.

The witness stated that prior to the monthly allowances to McNamara, funds were charged up to donations to various unions or as advances to various officials, without any later showing as to the disposition of the money.

A dozen foremen of structural or iron and structural "jobs" that were dynamited may be called to testify tomorrow. They are to be questioned about details of explosions which McManigal confessed he caused.

INVADES CALIFORNIA.

Gov. Marshall Attacks Johnson and His State's Election Laws.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 21.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, Vice Presidential nominee, criticised Governor Johnson, of California, his opponent on the Progressive ticket, in addressing an open air meeting here late today. His reference to Governor Johnson was made after the Democratic nominee had been welcomed to Sacramento and had been wished success by Grover Johnson, Governor Johnson's father.

"Governor Johnson came into our State and gave our people a lot of advice about running Indiana," said Governor Marshall. "He had a lot to say ho[illegible]ward we were, and how much we lacked progress, but I am not going to attempt to give you California people any advice in this connection. I think you are competent enough and sensible enough to handle your own affairs without suggestions from me.

"However, I do want to say in reply to Governor Johnson's criticism of Indiana, that a Taft Republican in Indiana this year would be able to vote for Mr. Taft on a Republican ticket, under a Republican emblem. We have no such law as your election law, which, I am told bars you Republicans from voting for Mr. Taft.

"You are not progressive, evidently, as I had been informed you were or you would not be held powerless under this law which practically has lost to many of you your franchises.

"I should like to see California cast its electoral vote for Woodrow Wilson, but I want to see it done through the free will of the voters. I would not like to see Woodrow Wilson win this State if the voters were driven to it by a law which rendered them powerless to vote for their own choice."

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT

Hon. Geo. E. Hood Has Number of Appointments to Speak

(Special Star Telegram.)

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 21.—Hon. Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, has a number of appointments to speak in the Third Congressional district, beginning Wednesday night at Rocky Point. The following day he will speak at Atkinson during the day and at Garland at night of the same day. He will speak at Roseboro Friday in the day and at Salemburg at night; Clinton, Saturday during the day and at Warsaw at night. Next Monday he will speak at Burgaw and on the following day at night at Cove. Friday and Saturday, November 1st and 2nd, will be devoted to Cartaret and he will close the campaign at Kenansville on Monday, November 4th. The people are respectfully invited to hear him at each appointment.

MILITIAMEN ACQUITTED

Gov. Brown Approves Findings of the Courtmartial at Augusta

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 21.—Governor Brown today approved the findings of the general courtmartial which acquitted the officers and men of the State militia of the murder charges growing out of the killing of three citizens recently in Augusta, Ga., while that city was under martial law. The citizens were killed when they attempted to pass a dead line established by the militia during the strike of the street car employes.

Governor Brown also issued an order today withdrawing the troops from Augusta and lifting the ban of martial law which has prevailed there for several weeks.

STEANER BURNING FIERCELY

bers of the crew had their hands and arms burned while fighting the fire. The revenue cutter Seminole has five streams pouring water into the freight hold of the Berkshire, but the flames, according to last reports, show little signs of diminishing. The forward freight hold, where the fire is believed to be confined, is almost flooded and the Berkshire is said to be lower by two feet in the water than she was when she entered the cove Sunday morning.

No statement as to the nature of the explosion that occurred this afternoon could be had from officials of the company here or from officers of the ship.

It is believed that the explosion was caused by bursting barrels of turpentine, which is said to be a portion of the ship's cargo.

The Seminole will stand by the ship tonight and probably land the passengers from the Berkshire in Beaufort tomorrow. They will proceed from there by rail to their respective destinations.

Fire Uncontrolled; Coal Runs Short

Beaufort, N. C., Oct. 21.—Late tonight the fire on the steamship Berkshire was uncontrolled and the revenue cutter Seminole was running short of coal. At it will be impossible to get coal to the cutter before tomorrow or the next day, the result will be serious unless additional assistance arrives soon.

The passengers who were taken aboard the Seminole today were landed tonight at the Cape Lookout life saving station, where they will be cared for until they take the train north tomorrow.

The Berkshire is anchored within a few hundred yards of shore in Lookout Cove and if she should sink she would be in about three and a half fathoms and could probably be raised easily.

GOV. WILSON'S PLANS

Will Wait on Colonel Roosevelt Before Speaking Again

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 21.—Upon the news tomorrow of the effect on Colonel Roosevelt of his trip from Chicago, will depend largely Governor Wilson's plans for the rest of the campaign. The Democratic nominee said tonight his speaking plans for the present were "up in the air."

For October 31st, a big meeting is planned at Madison Square Garden, New York, but the nominee said tonight he could not say yet whether he would attend. He will, however, on November 2nd, review in New York a parade of college men supporting him.

The Governor said his present intension was to do no more speaking until Colonel Roosevelt recovered. He intimated if the colonel was able to resume active charge of his campaign, and direct it from Oyster Bay, he might consider that sufficient reason for going into active campaigning himself, though he did not explain whether he would do it by statements, speeches or messages.

The Governor left his correspondence in the afternoon and went to University Field to watch the practice of the Princeton football team. He was there 15 minutes and would have stayed longer, but K. Sol Ames, one of the coaches, insisted on talking about the tariff to the nominee.

"I consider that almost an injury," laughed the Governor. "I found I could not get away from politics even on the football field."

Governor Wilson was informed tonight that Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, would address the Woodrow Wilson Club, of Princeton University, Thursday night.

"I shall certainly want to hear him," remarked the Governor, "but on second thought it might be dangerous. I wonder if I could go just as a part of the audience without being called upon to make a speech?"

The Governor will go to Trenton tomorrow for his weekly round-up of State business.

TAFT CHANGES PLANS

Will Close Summer Home and Return To Washington Sunday

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 21.—There was a sudden shift today in President Taft's vacation plans, and in consequence he probably will return to Washington for the Winter next Sunday. If the programme as tentatively announced tonight is carried out the summer White House here will be closed Friday.

With the change in plans came the announcement that Secretary of State Knox will arrive in Beverly Wednesday to be the President's guest for several days. Mr. Knox will accompany the President and Mrs. Taft on a motor trip into New Hampshire and Maine. This trip will end at Beverly Friday afternoon, and the President will hurry into Boston to catch a train for the West. He has an engagement in Cambridge Springs, Pa., Saturday and Mr. Knox, who is understood to have one in Buffalo, N. Y., the same day, probably will go along. From Cambridge Springs, the President will probably go to Washington, arriving there early Sunday. There are many things about which the President wishes to consult the Secretary of State. The Panama tolls, the Nicaraguan and Mexican situations and other diplomatic questions that assumed great importance since Mr. Knox left for Japan will be taken up in detail by the President.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 21.—Denver Jay and Zarrine, both of the Estabrook staple, won respectively the $2,500 stake offered to 2:20 pacers and the $5,000 stake offered to 2:14 trotters at the Great Western Circuit races today. Gus Macey drove the Estabrook entries and won as he pleased. The track was heavy.

POLICEMAN TESTIFIES.

Fred Flynn Describes Assault on Anna Lopezzio During Strike.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 21.—Fred Flynn, of the Massachusetts District Police, testifying today in the trial of Joseph J. Ettor, Arthuro Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso, accused of the murder of Anna Lopessio during the Lawrence textile strike, described the assault on a young girl in the streets of Lawrence, January 29th last, by rioters. Flynn declared that the defendant Ettor was in the "center of the mob".

"I had followed the mob from a street car riot," said Flynn, "when I saw a number of them rush upon a young girl who was carrying a lunch box. They took the box away and threw it into the air. Then they tore off part of her clothing. While this was going on, I saw Ettor pass by in the center of the mob."

Flynn told of several riots on the morning of that day, disturbances which came to a climax the same afternoon in the killing of Anna Lopezzio. He described how he and another officer held back a mob at the Lawrence Dye Works after arresting a striker who had flourished a revolver and driven a workman from a car near the works.

He identified a cartridge belt containing 25 cartridges, a loaded revolver and two knives which he had taken from the prisoner.

Flynn and Officer Michael Byron, who arrested Giovannitti after his indictment, both testified that the defendant admitted advising the strikers to "sleep by day and act like wild animals at night."

On the night Flynn arrested Giovannitti, the defendant, Flynn testified, said to him: "I don't want you to put any dynamite in here."

"I assured him that I had brought nothing into the house," Flynn continued. "Then Giovannitti asked: 'Have you got Ettor, too?' I told him he would see Ettor at the police station."

Flynn's testimony was not concluded when court adjourned for the day.

FRANK ZEMP ACQUITTED

Was Charged With Writing Threatening Letter to Mrs. E. G. Cash

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 21.—In Federal court today Frank L. Zemp, Jr., of Spartanburg, was acquitted of a charge of using the mails to defraud, the specific allegation being that Zemp had written a threatening letter to Mrs. E. G. Cash, of Spartanburg, demanding $150.

Zemp's arrest created quite a sensation and the case attracted considerable attention, owing to the prominence of parties involved.

A Penny and a Five-Dollar Gold Piece

Bear a distinct family resemblance in size, if not in relation of quality. Consequently if the gold piece is kept in close association with pennies it is likely to share the fate of being taken for one, or rather GIVEN for one, as happened not long ago with a friend of ours.

The lady paid the milkman, as she thought, fifteen cents, but in reality handed him fourteen pennies and the little gold piece, not discovering her error until the following day.
